Nixon Sets Hawaiian Summit Meet With Tanaka Tonight

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon will welcome Japanese Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka to Hawaii tonight for summit talks he hopes will strengthen prospects for peace in the Pacific.

Nixon scheduled a full morning of work at the Western White House here before taking off from the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station for Honolulu's Hickam Field.

While on the island of Oahu, Nixon will spend most of his time with Tanaka. But he will hold a Vietnam conference Thursday with Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to Saigon, and will set aside some time for trying to win friends and influence voters.

A campaign-style welcome was readied for him at Hickam, and he planned to mingle with Hawaii's business and civic leaders at a reception given by Clare Boothe Luce, who served as ambassador to Italy during the Eisenhower administration.

Mrs. Nixon will also do some goodwill hopping, flying to Hilo on the island of Hawaii Thursday to visit volunteer service projects and be entertained at a luau.

Vietnam and politics dominated a 39-minute news conference Nixon held Tuesday outside his San Clemente home. Some of the highlights:

—Bombing of North Vietnam and the mining of its harbors will continue until there is substantial progress toward a settlement of the war. Neither activity will be halted "as an election eve tactic."

—Of the controversial bugging of Democratic National Committee headquarters, he said: "We want the air cleared. We want it cleared as soon as possible." Anyone in government or in this campaign who declined to cooperate with investigators will be fired.

—The President, in seeking a second term, is bidding for "a clear mandate for what I have called change that works." He said he wants to forge a "new majority" embracing Democrats as well as Republicans.

—Nixon will spend most of the next six weeks in Washington, making only occasional one-day campaign trips. But he will step up the tempo in the final three weeks of the campaign, stumping hard and covering the whole country.

Nixon said he and Tanaka will discuss "initiatives towards the People's Republic of China and towards the Soviet Union." But he placed greater emphasis on economic problems.

Noting that Japan enjoys a tidy surplus in trade with the United States, he said, "I believe that out of this meeting will come some progress in trying to reduce that unfavorable balance."

Dangers Of PCB Chemical Pointed Out By Testing

NEW YORK (AP) — The industrial chemical PCB has produced death of embryos and birth defects in laboratory animal experiments, a government biologist reported today.

Dr. Helene C. Cecil of the U.S. Department of Agriculture said that 70 per cent of white leghorn chickens fed moderate levels of PCBs produced embryos that failed to hatch.

And of the chick embryos that failed to hatch, 34 per cent had birth defects, Dr. Cecil told the 164th national meeting of the American Chemical Society.

Dr. Cecil described the research as one of only a few controlled studies of the effects of PCBs. Her report followed one on Tuesday of the discovery of the chemical in human tissue.

PCB, while not a pesticide, is chemically similar to DDT. It has found its way into the environment, into marine and animal life, and it has been detected in some drinking water in New York State, and in arctic polar bears.

Scientists at the chemical society meeting said PCB has been put to such uses as a liquid for transformers, as a lubricant, as a paint additive, in hydraulic fluid, and carbonless carbon paper and probably in other areas not widely known. The chemical is highly resistant to heat.

"The recent contamination of poultry in 12 states is just one example of the hazards PCB can create," Dr. Cecil said. "Many potential problems are still unrealized and not appreciated at this time because of the relatively small amount of research on PCBs in the past."

Ambassador To France Quits Post

Asthma Condition Made Worse By Paris Climate

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Arthur K. Watson, who several months ago was assigned to establish diplomatic contacts with the Communist Chinese in Paris and became involved in a controversy with columnist Jack Anderson, has resigned as U.S. ambassador to France, the Western White House says.

Watson, 53, said in his Aug. 16 letter of resignation to President Nixon that the Paris climate has aggravated his asthma condition, a spokesman said Tuesday.

The former IBM executive, who has held the key diplomatic post since April 16, 1970, asked that his resignation be made effective soon after Labor Day.

Nixon granted his wish, but did not say when he would appoint a successor, the spokesman said.

Hog Cholera Under Control In Ohio, Officials Report

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two swine herds were destroyed and the federal government will have to pay more than $19,000 to two western Ohio farmers, but an Ohio agricultural official says hog cholera has been controlled in the Buckeye State.

Dr. Harry Goldstein, chief of animal industries for the Ohio Department of Agriculture, said Tuesday Ohio was in "excellent shape" in eradication of the disease that affects only swine.

Goldstein said it took a week to get the disease under control in the Buckeye State. The total was 48 hogs.

The federal government will pay a Van Wert County farmer $11,395, the market value for his 400 hogs, and a Darke County farmer, $7,700 for his 248 hogs.

The David Meyers farm near Wren in Van Wert County was the scene Tuesday of what Ohio officials hope is the last hog eradication in the state. The 200-acre farm was sealed off, and no visitors were allowed on the property during the slaughter. The animals were buried on the Meyers farm.

Mrs. Meyers said the outbreak of hog cholera will not stop them from raising more hogs. "We're going to have to do without, but we're not licked," she said.

A Van Wert agricultural agent estimated the Meyers would have realized a $4,000 profit on the sale of the hogs in a few months.

In a precautionary measure, the Van Wert County Fair Board decided not to hold senior and junior fair swine shows at the agricultural exposition that begins Friday.

County officials said it was "a necessary step in insuring good swine shows in future years." Goldstein said, "Even though the danger might not be too great, the danger was enough. It's better to be conservative than to have a problem."

In Kentucky, where the disease began a week ago, about $75,000 has been paid to hog dealers and farmers for the more than 1,800 that have been killed.

An estimated 29,000 hogs have either been exposed or infected by the disease in Kentucky.

Two cases of cholera have been confirmed in White County, Ind. West Virginia has not reported a case.

Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia plus other Midwestern states have placed embargoes on Kentucky hogs.

Final Figure May Approach About 20,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources expect the number of U.S. troops in Vietnam to fall to about 25,000 men by Dec. 1, some 2,000 fewer than President Nixon's goal for that date.

These sources also predicted Tuesday that the number of troops staying behind will fall to about 20,000 before leveling out to a minimum force.

The President announced Tuesday the latest troop reduction, from about 39,000 at present to 27,000 by Dec. 1. He refused to say whether additional withdrawals would follow.

However, Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird said the 27,000 will not be the minimum force expected to remain in Vietnam pending a war settlement, meaning another withdrawal is likely.

The President said Tuesday, as he has said before, that some U.S. troops will remain in Vietnam while "there is one prisoner of war in Vietnam or missing in action not accounted for."

The latest troop withdrawal is the 12th under a policy followed by Nixon since shortly after he entered the White House in 1969 when U.S. troops in South Vietnam totaled 543,400.

Laird, who returned Tuesday from a conference with Nixon at the Western White House at San Clemente, Calif., said U.S. servicemen remaining in South Vietnam will carry out logistics, air, intelligence and advisory assignments.

The U.S. advisors will be the last to leave. There were hints at the Pentagon that their number will be reduced in the next withdrawal stage.

The bulk of the U.S. air power and more than 100,000 American military men are outside of Vietnam, in Thailand, Guam and aboard warships, from where they continue the attack by air and sea against North Vietnam, supply lines in Laos and enemy troop concentrations in the South.

Nixon said Tuesday the bombing and mining of North Vietnamese harbors will continue until peace negotiations are productive. He said he wants peace on terms that do not "destroy the respect, trust and honor of the United States around the world."

Pentagon sources said the intensity of the air attack could slacken by late fall after an intensified North Vietnamese offensive that is expected in the next couple of months has spent itself.

Air Glide Slope Not Operating At Huntington

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Federal Aviation Administration officials said Tuesday a glide slope system at Huntington's Tri-State Airport will be left out of operation during the time the facility is undergoing a $6.7 million construction project.

The project, extending the main runway from 5,200 feet to 6,500 feet, is expected to take a year.

Airport Manager William Mays called the FAA decision a tentative one and said he would learn of a final decision next week.

The system was installed at the airport following heavy criticism concerning the lack of such equipment at the time of a Nov. 14, 1970 plane crash that claimed 75 lives, including most of Marshall University's football team and coaching staff.

McGovern Would Offer Thieu Exile

NEW YORK (AP) — South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu should be offered political asylum in the United States if he feels endangered by a postwar settlement, Democratic Presidential candidate George McGovern said today.

"General Thieu has been our man in Saigon," McGovern said. "We put him there. He may not represent the ideals of democracy, but he's our man."

Find 80 Cancer Cases From DES Patients

By WARREN E. LEARY
Associated Press Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Researchers whose studies first linked a synthetic female hormone to cancer in the children of pregnant women who took the drug say they have uncovered some 80 cases of such tumors since beginning their investigations.

In 1971, Drs. Arthur Herbst, Howard Ulfelder and David Poskanzer, working at Boston's Vincent Memorial Hospital, caused a medical stir when they reported finding eight cases of vaginal cancer during 1966-1969 which were apparently linked to the hormone diethylstilbestrol (DES).

They said they discovered that in each case, the mothers of the cancer patients had received DES during pregnancy. They reported there was a "highly significant association" between the mothers taking the drug and vaginal cancer in their young daughters.

Herbst says that since the study appeared, his team has received and confirmed reports on some 80 cases of vaginal tumors in women under 25 from throughout the country and overseas.

He said that even though the use of stilbestrol, a derivative of DES, was widespread in pregnant women in the late 40s and early 50s, the fact that only 80 related cancer cases have been

"We still don't know the risk of any young girl developing a tumor whose mother took the drug, but we feel it is small," he said.

The Herbst team study has two significant medical implications. It is one of the first times that a drug taken by a parent has been linked with disease in offspring occurring so

Mrs. Meyers said the outbreak of hog cholera will not stop them from raising more hogs. "We're going to have to do without, but we're not licked," she said.

A Van Wert agricultural agent estimated the Meyers would have realized a $4,000 profit on the sale of the hogs in a few months.

In a precautionary measure, the Van Wert County Fair Board decided not to hold senior and junior fair swine shows at the agricultural exposition that begins Friday.

County officials said it was "a necessary step in insuring good swine shows in future years." Goldstein said, "Even though the danger might not be too great, the danger was enough. It's better to be conservative than to have a problem."

In Kentucky, where the disease began a week ago, about $75,000 has been paid to hog dealers and farmers for the more than 1,800 that have been killed.

An estimated 29,000 hogs have either been exposed or infected by the disease in Kentucky.

Two cases of cholera have been confirmed in White County, Ind. West Virginia has not reported a case.

Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia plus other Midwestern states have placed embargoes on Kentucky hogs.

Japanese Official Expects More 'Freedom' From U.S.

TOKYO (AP) — Masayoshi Ohira, the man chiefly responsible for Japan's foreign policy, calls the United States "a heaven-sent friend," but says Japan can no longer one-sidedly depend on it politically, militarily and economically.

The 62-year-old foreign minister will be at Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka's side in the two-day summit talks with President Nixon in Hawaii.

Tanaka regards himself as primarily an expert on domestic problems, and he leans heavily on Ohira.

Ohira holds the Foreign Ministry portfolio for the second time in 10 years and is further buttressed in the U.S.-Japan talks by a term as minister of international trade and industry.

He is the main architect of Tanaka's lightning moves to recognize China and will accompany him to Peking for talks with Premier Chou En-lai, expected late in September.

Shortly before his appointment Ohira, spelled out his views on diplomacy in an article in the Asian quarterly review Pacific Community.

He puts relations with the United States first, but says there is "an excessive tendency for emotionalism and curiosity to color our attitude."

"We must get rid of our feeling of always depending upon the United States and expecting it to pamper us," he says. "We must seek to deepen our understanding of the United States from a position as close as possible to that of an equal partner."

McGovern Would Offer Thieu Exile

NEW YORK (AP) — South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu should be offered political asylum in the United States if he feels endangered by a postwar settlement, Democratic Presidential candidate George McGovern said today.

"General Thieu has been our man in Saigon," McGovern said. "We put him there. He may not represent the ideals of democracy, but he's our man."

"If he and some of his friends feel endangered by a postwar settlement, I think we ought to welcome him here," the South Dakota senator said following an appearance on the NBC "Today" show.

Plan To Fight Busing Rule

He sees Japan taking on more of the burden of its own defense, but without acquiring unlimited defense power, returning to militarism or acquiring nuclear weapons.

Memphis Group Eyes Court Action

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — An antibusing group says it will file legal action and mount more demonstrations against court-ordered busing in the Memphis school system.

The group, Citizens Against Busing, said Tuesday night it will go into U.S. District Court in Memphis and ask that a three-judge panel be appointed to determine the constitutionality of busing.

At the same time, Ken Keele, chairman of the CAB board of directors, said his group "will take whatever action is necessary and oppose by any means possible" implementation of school busing.

The CAB action comes in the wake of a 2-1 decision by the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati upholding an order by U.S. District Court Judge Robert McRae that busing of more than 14,000 students begin immediately. The appeals court also directed McRae to prepare a timetable for further desegregation.

In all, about 60 schools are affected by the court order. The Memphis school system has 145,000 pupils.

Memphis school officials said they will take no action until after the school board meets Thursday afternoon.

"We are going to just wait and see what the board wants to do, whether to appeal it or whatever," School Supt. George Freeman said.

The appellate ruling came in a case first filed by the NAACP 12 years ago. Earlier this year, the Court of Appeals stayed the lower court plan pending full appeal.

Final Figure May Approach About 20,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources expect the number of U.S. troops in Vietnam to fall to about 25,000 men by Dec. 1, some 2,000 fewer than President Nixon's goal for that date.

These sources also predicted Tuesday that the number of troops staying behind will fall to about 20,000 before leveling out to a minimum force.

The President announced Tuesday the latest troop reduction, from about 39,000 at present to 27,000 by Dec. 1. He refused to say whether additional withdrawals would follow.

However, Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird said the 27,000 will not be the minimum force expected to remain in Vietnam pending a war settlement, meaning another withdrawal is likely.

The President said Tuesday, as he has said before, that some U.S. troops will remain in Vietnam while "there is one prisoner of war in Vietnam or missing in action not accounted for."

The latest troop withdrawal is the 12th under a policy followed by Nixon since shortly after he entered the White House in 1969 when U.S. troops in South Vietnam totaled 543,400.

Laird, who returned Tuesday from a conference with Nixon at the Western White House at San Clemente, Calif., said U.S. servicemen remaining in South Vietnam will carry out logistics, air, intelligence and advisory assignments.

The U.S. advisors will be the last to leave. There were hints at the Pentagon that their number will be reduced in the next withdrawal stage.

The bulk of the U.S. air power and more than 100,000 American military men are outside of Vietnam, in Thailand, Guam and aboard warships, from where they continue the attack by air and sea against North Vietnam, supply lines in Laos and enemy troop concentrations in the South.

Nixon said Tuesday the bombing and mining of North Vietnamese harbors will continue until peace negotiations are productive. He said he wants peace on terms that do not "destroy the respect, trust and honor of the United States around the world."

Pentagon sources said the intensity of the air attack could slacken by late fall after an intensified North Vietnamese offensive that is expected in the next couple of months has spent itself.

Big Airlines Plan Search Of Luggage

NEW YORK (AP) — Within a few days, passengers boarding all Trans World Airlines and American Airlines flights will have to surrender their hand luggage for inspection.

The two carriers announced Tuesday that they planned to search all baggage carried aboard their flights in an effort to prevent hijackings.

It is a new policy for American airlines, which previously conducted only spot checks, and an extension of TWA's past policy of inspecting hand luggage on international flights.

George A. Ward, president of American Airlines, said inspecting hand luggage at all of the 45 airports served by the company would cost an extra $2.5 million a year. TWA put no price tag on the added expense. "I think it's clear there were some people this summer who did not travel because of the (hijacking) problem," said Walter J. Rauscher, executive vice president for passenger marketing at American Airlines. "We want to show them we're taking every precaution possible to prevent it."

Find 80 Cancer Cases From DES Patients

By WARREN E. LEARY
Associated Press Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Researchers whose studies first linked a synthetic female hormone to cancer in the children of pregnant women who took the drug say they have uncovered some 80 cases of such tumors since beginning their investigations.

In 1971, Drs. Arthur Herbst, Howard Ulfelder and David Poskanzer, working at Boston's Vincent Memorial Hospital, caused a medical stir when they reported finding eight cases of vaginal cancer during 1966-1969 which were apparently linked to the hormone diethylstilbestrol (DES).

They said they discovered that in each case, the mothers of the cancer patients had received DES during pregnancy. They reported there was a "highly significant association" between the mothers taking the drug and vaginal cancer in their young daughters. Herbst says that since the study appeared, his team has received and confirmed reports on some 80 cases of vaginal tumors in women under 25 from throughout the country and overseas.

He said that even though the use of stilbestrol, a derivative of DES, was widespread in pregnant women in the late 40s and early 50s, the fact that only 80 related cancer cases have been reported would indicate that the risk of cancer in the daughters is "so far not very large."

Anderson also said Watson had a chronic "liquor problem" that could harm the delicate task of setting up relations between the United States and China.

The investigation was dropped after Secretary of State William P. Rogers wrote that Watson had apologized for the incident.

BGSU Seeks Little Red Schoolhouse

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — South of Norwalk is "a gem" of a little red schoolhouse that Bowling Green State University covets both for sentimental and practical reasons.

The university wants to move the brick structure, long abandoned, to its campus.

"The Norwalk school is a gem, with fine proportions and an outstanding belfry," said Glenn Felch, a graduate art student from Perrysburg. "It's unique as a classic style."

Felch spent all summer doing research into Wood County's little red schoolhouses. Most such one-room buildings, he found, "have been vacant for 30 to 40 years and most have been destroyed."

"Since its founding in 1910 Bowling Green has been dedicated to training professionals in education, and the schoolhouse will serve as a visible symbol of northwest Ohio's educational heritage."

But, the building is more than a sentiment. It would serve as a home for the Educational Memorabilia Center of Ohio, a collection of school relics.

"We have to be reminded where we have been and where we came from," said Dr. Hollis Moore, president of Bowling Green. "There is a strong educational tie between the little red schoolhouse and the big university."

Donations totaling $11,000 already have been received for the move of the school. Total cost is estimated at $75,000.

Undercover Agents To Get Receipts?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Whenever a state undercover agent buys drugs from a pusher or information from an informant, he's supposed to get a receipt if he can.

State auditors scolded the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation recently for failing to account in detail for undercover expenditures.

managed to accumulate over $100 in excess funds since that time.

Rather than to spend the money on a party for the employees or in some other festive manner, the 29 postal workers decided to put the money to good use and donate it to the Heart Association and Cancer Society.

"We feel that it is in the interest of all postal employees here to make that donation, since our little group has lost four people to these diseases," Howard Neighbourger, spokesman for the group, said. Neighbourger was referring to Paul Helwagen, who succumbed early this year as a result of cancer. Two other former employees—Elliott Wells and Ralph Pritchard.

A VICTIM of death by heart disease was another post office employee, Nelson Lape.

Circleville's postal employees enjoy a coffee and donut break in the morning duties and share the expense of having a soft drink dispensing machine on the premises for refreshment during the day. After paying their normal expenses for these, they discovered that they were making a small profit which increased over time.

"This was a gesture we all decided upon," Neighbourger commented. "And it is continuing." Every several months whenever a certain amount of money collects in the fund, another contribution will be made.

The money, $50 for the Cancer Society and $50 for the heart fund, was turned over Tuesday morning to a local representative. Neighbourger believes the second donation may be made around the Christmas holidays.

Man Injured By Falling Culvert Pipe

Charles Crawford, 47, Grove City, is in satisfactory condition Wednesday morning in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, after culvert pipe tumbled from a truck bed onto him 11:45 a.m. Tuesday.

Crawford was helping unload the 20-foot long sections of pipe at the construction site of a proposed trailer park on the outskirts of South Bloomfield when the 12-inch diameter pipe slipped and fell on his head.

He was given emergency treatment at Berger Hospital for head, neck and back injuries before being transferred to the Columbus hospital.

Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Bob Hoover investigated the incident.

Car-Truck Collision Injures Three People

ACCIDENT VEHICLES — Three people were injured in this car-truck collision 8:14 p.m. Tuesday on the Tarlton-Adelphi Rd. Pickaway County

Three people were injured, one seriously, in a car-truck near head-on crash south of Tarlton 8:14 p.m. Tuesday.

Two other accidents, which resulted in injuries to a motorcyclist and two charges being filed against a Delaware man, were also investigated by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

Sandra Phillips, age unknown, of Route 1, Kingston, is in serious condition in Grant Hospital, Columbus, after truck driver Roger Bussert apparently drove left of center on the Tarlton-Adelphi Rd. and hit her car.

She was given emergency treatment at Berger Hospital's emergency room for lung injuries, a fractured right leg and abrasions and contusions of her entire body.

SHERIFF'S Deputy Phil Brown, who was in charge of the investigation at the accident scene, said marks indicate Bussert drove three feet left of center and hit the Phillips car in the front left side.

The accident occurred on a slight right curve as Bussert was southbound. Impact knocked his truck 89 feet through the east ditch into a soybean field. The Phillips auto was knocked 38 feet into the east ditch.

Businesses Seek Help

BELFAST (AP) — Businessmen in Northern Ireland asked the British government today for $24½ million worth of emergency assistance to keep open amid the bombs and shooting.

An appeal from the Belfast Chamber of Trade on behalf of firms in the capital, Londonderry and Newry said the money was vital to keep establishments suffering constant damage from going under.

Even as the plea was issued, a powerful bomb blast tore apart a garage in North Belfast. Another massive explosion wrecked a tobacco warehouse Tuesday.

Weakening the economy of Protestant dominated Ulster is among the aims of the Irish Republican Army in its campaign to force the province under the rule of the Roman Catholic republic to the south.

Unless the British government helps out, said the Chamber of Trade "we are about to give the terrorists a massive victory — the collapse and closing down of well-established Ulster businesses." It said trade in the center of the cities had dropped 35 per cent during the three years of violence that has cost at least 512 lives.

In Australia, the Sydney Evening Sun reported that the IRA is trying to recruit Australians as snipers and bomb makers in Northern Ireland. The news paper said one Sydney explosives expert was offered an advance of $2,400, free passage to Ireland and $600 "a hit" to make bombs. He refused, the Sun added.

CHICAGO (AP) — An agreement has been reached between International Harvester Co. and Bumar, Foreign Trade Enterprise of Poland, for the manufacture and sale of International heavy construction equipment.

MAX Kasler suffered multiple abrasions and contusions of his left shoulder and arm and a possible fractured collar bone when he lost control of his motorcycle after swerving to miss a dog in the Circleville-Groveport Rd. 1:20 a.m. Wednesday.

Kasler, 23, of 325 Edwards Rd., was treated at Berger Hospital. He told Sheriff's Deputy Earl Kuhn that the dog ran from the right side of the roadway, just north of the South Bloomfield-Royalton intersection.

The bike went off the berm of the road, where Kasler lost control. He was thrown to the pavement as his motorcycle continued into the right ditch.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Deal stopped a 48-year-old Delaware, Ohio, man, James A. Gilchrist, when he spotted Gilchrist drinking a pint of whiskey in his pick-up truck 6 p.m. Tuesday.

The deputy said Gilchrist got out of the truck when he pulled behind him and hoisted a crow bar "above his head and looked right at this unit with it."

DEPUTY Deal called for assistance and then ordered Gilchrist to drop the weapon. When he refused Deal pulled his service revolver and again demanded that the man surrender.

Gilchrist finally dropped the bar and Deputy Deal noticed that his truck was damaged. He asked the man if he had been in a wreck on Emerson Road and the man said he lost control of his truck off the right side and collided with a telephone pole.

HE said he then continued driving on Emerson Road. Deal charged him with driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident. He later tested 39 on a breathalyzer examination at the Circleville Police department.

study, Herbst says, the already declining use of stilbestrol in pregnant women has decreased even further.

Beginning in 1946, pregnant women with histories of spontaneous abortions were frequently treated with DES because much was written at the time about the increased success of high-risk pregnancies following the use of the drug.

Because of stilbestrol's popularity, no one knows how many pregnant women received the drug, but conservative estimates put the number at least several hundred thousand worldwide.

Herbst says he and others are continuing research on the effects of DES on offspring. He says that it may be many years before final conclusions may be drawn because the research involves studying the development of cancer in man patients and the occurrence of the disease in later generations.

Head G. W. Turner Arrested

SANFORD, Fla. (AP) — Glenn W. Turner, 37-year-old millionaire and founder of a giant corporate empire, was arrested early today as he stepped from his private jet at Sanford Airport, Seminole County deputies said.

The Orlando businessman, head of Glenn W. Turner Enterprises, was charged with violating the Uniform Sales and Securities Law, said Seminole County Deputy Russ Corley.

Turner was taken to the county jail here. He immediately posted $20,000 bond and was released, Corley reported.

Last Tuesday, law officers from Pinellas and Orange counties sealed off the main Turner headquarters in Orlando and seized records belonging to Dare To Be Great, Inc., a subsidiary of Turner's 70-firm conglomerate.

Turner protested the confiscation, but a Pinellas County circuit judge subsequently ruled that the documents had been taken lawfully.

Turner had challenged the right of a state attorney's office to seize records in an investigation in which no indictments or arrest warrants had been issued. Pinellas County State Attorney Richard Eagan said last week that the investigation was being carried on solely by authorities in that county.

Legal actions against Turner firms have been initiated in 42 states. Most allege deceptive selling in the big Turner money-makers: Kosco International, Inc., a cosmetics firm, and Dare To Be Great, a self-confidence course.

Federal complaints are pending before the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Federal Trade Commission. Turner himself faces charges of conspiracy to cheat and defraud in Michigan and Florida.

Highway 13 Still Closed By Viet Reds

SAIGON (AP) — After nearly five months of grinding, bloody battle, the South Vietnamese have abandoned efforts to open Highway 13 to An Loc and are reverting to "mobile tactics" to forestall a threat to Saigon, military sources said today.

Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Minh, the commander in the Saigon region, has put a new task force of some 10,000 troops into the field.

Government forces have given up all fixed bases along the 15-mile stretch of Highway 13 between Chon Thanh and An Loc, a stretch where they had been stalled in costly fighting since early May.

The sources said the North Vietnamese forces now appear to be trying to move south toward Saigon on courses paralleling the highway. Some officials believe this is part of a new offensive effort that, according to captured documents, is being readied for the immediate Saigon area next month.

President Nguyen Van Thieu predicted such an effort in a speech Aug. 1, saying the Communists would put pressure on Saigon before the U.S. election in an effort to create economic crisis and political unrest in the capital.

The plan's early phase already is being manifested in a series of attacks and terrorist incidents that temporarily sever main highways leading into Saigon.

Most of these attacks have been concentrated along Highway 4, the supply route from the Mekong Delta, and Highway 1 which runs through the city on an east-west course.

A large bridge was blown up on Highway 1 12 miles northwest of Saigon early Tuesday. The day before, three booby-trapped roadblocks stopped traffic 25 miles east of Saigon.

Volpe Pushes Mass Transit

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—John A. Volpe, U.S. secretary of transportation, said Tuesday that elimination of acute traffic congestion justifies his efforts to divert federal highway funds to improvement of mass transportation by bus and railroad.

"Right now between Boston and Washington, modern six-lane highways which have excess capacity parallel many railroad tracks," Volpe said. "Those tracks could carry five times as many passengers as they do, and they should."

"Otherwise increased traffic will mean building more six-lane expressways which would cost billions of dollars and require tearing down of tens of thousands of homes and businesses."

He told a traffic seminar at the University of Akron that trucking operators were receptive to his idea of spending highway funds to improve mass transit if the spending will eliminate road congestion.

"They agree with what I say, but they still oppose our plans for legislation," he said.

The Decision Of Death

A medical debate that's been going on for at least a generation has reached the Senate Special Committee on Aging: the question of who would make the decision — and under what circumstances — on allowing a fellow human being to die.

Sen. Frank Church, the chairman, said the hearings "are not floating trial balloons on proposals for governmental action." Rather, he said, they are an attempt to gain "a greater public understanding of the issues before we can even begin to think about changes in public policy."

That's the dilemma, to ever come up with any public declaration on anything as private as death.

Conflict Management

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

MIAMI BEACH — In spite of incidents in front of posh hotels and in the streets leading to the convention hall, the evidence offered during Republican week at Miami Beach is that the esoteric new science of conflict management has come of age. Mayor Richard Daley's Chicago police should have been on hand to watch the clever maneuvering that diverted the energies of antagonistic protesting groups into futile civil war as the Republican delegates, with a lone McCloskey dissenter went about their euphoric business of crowning King Richard.

The Yuppies, Zippies, Hippies, and Skinny-Dippies in Flamingo Park might have come to Miami Beach with ideas of confronting King Richard in the name of peace. The Vietnam Veterans Against the War were certainly there for martially pacifistic purposes that had been approved by the McGovernite way back in July. The Cuban Americans, both first and second generation, however, had different ideas: They want war on Castro, and more than 2,000 of them marched against the "Anglo" Vietnam Veterans on the day the convention was officially opened.

Meanwhile, someone adroitly drew the shades of Miami Beach High School when the Vietnam anti-war veterans tried to lure the national guardsmen inside the building into deserting their posts. The Zippi hung an effigy of Nixon's friend, Evangelist Billy Graham, but fundamentalist Carl McIntire, demonstrating against the Jesus (CAP F) Freaks, made it a business of Christian against Christian in the streets, a diversion that let the chaplains inside the convention hall go their unimpeded ways.

The Miami Beach police, who might have turned back all the protesters at the long causeways that connect "Sun City" with the Florida mainland, had, with singular sangfroid, let the "Enemy" into the protected territory of Flamingo Park. They knew, as Chicago's Dick Daley did not know in 1968, that the way to deal with dissent is to let it recoil on itself. There is a self-defeating "Dissidence of Dissent" as Ralph Waldo Emerson put it more than a century ago.

One of the dissidence-of-dissent groups in Flamingo Park happened to be a black-power group called the National Self-Help Party. This is the newly created political arm of Dr. Thomas Matthew's NEGRO, or National Economic Growth and Reconstruction Organization. The black self-helpers had come to Miami Beach to hold their own convention, replete with a platform preamble applauding President Nixon's "Innovative moves in foreign policy," but calling upon the Republicans to set up a Minority Economics Board to support self-help domestic concepts. To have pro-Nixon blacks inside of Flamingo Park was something of a switch. It added to the assurance of the conflict managers that dissidence would cancel dissidence.

Dr. Matthew is under no illusions that he can shift huge blocs of black voters to the Republican party this autumn. But he has a bullet strategy in mind. With his own army of reformed drug addicts, school dropouts, and multi-generation welfare recipients, he plans to hit a few states in which the black vote is the swing vote. It is not that he thinks the Nixon administration has done all it could to promote black capitalism and other self-help measures that would improve the lot of blacks living in Harlem and South Chicago. Dr. Matthew knows that he will get nothing without exerting continuous political pressure, which would ordinarily dictate working with the "outs" in an election year. But Dr. Matthew doesn't think Sen. George McGovern is the man to aid the black self-help cause.

McGovern, he told the national self-help party convention, "is no better and no worse than any other politician. It is not the fact that he is a sanctimonious hypocrite that should cause black Americans to vote against him. It is the fact that he is inept and incapable of fulfilling the responsibilities of the presidency that should lead us to reject his candidacy."

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

MILES CITY, MONT. (AP) — The cowboy is known as a range rider here in "the biggest little cow town on earth," and he is far from a vanished figure.

He may ride to work in a pickup truck or, on occasion, a helicopter. Instead of $30 or $40 a month and found, he may now draw $300 or more, plus his cookies and a place to sling his bedroll.

But he is still at home on the back of a horse, the work can be every bit as dangerous as it was in the frontier past, and his shop talk is as colorful as that of any American occupation.

Some of the range rider's picturesque terms have been collected in "Cowboy Slang," by Edgar R. Potter, Montana historian.

It is a language marked by variety, vivid epithets and exaggerated comparisons. For example, the range rider had at least 40 different words to characterize his horse. He called it everything from "bang-tail," "boneyard" and "Knot-wringtail."

And to him a horse could be any of 38 different colors. They included albino, blue roan, flea-bitten grey, strawberry roan and zebra dun.

Saloon keepers called the stuff they pushed across the bars to cowboys whisky. What the cowboys called it, however, was "bug juice," "gut warmer," "nose paint," "red eye," "rotgut," "scamper juice," "snake poison" or "tonsil varnish."

When flaring tempers ended in flaming guns, the victim wasn't simply killed. Someone "made wolf meat out of him," "put a window in his skull," "hung up his hide," "curled him up," or "dabbled in his gore. At the very least he "bit the dust" or someone "blowed out his lamp."

THURSDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

You find you are quite nervous and restless now and need to be very careful you are not forgetful and that you avoid breaking promises. You are thinking with good logic, but have trouble carrying through with the sensible decisions you make. Be steadfast.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Take time to compose yourself so that you do not have trouble in motion of any kind, especially while driving in the highway, turning corners, and so forth. Avoid sarcasm with associates. Diplomacy pays off well.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) A more balanced attitude is best, since you can be very stingy one minute and overly extravagant the next. Do contact an adviser you can trust. Make the investment that will lead to greater security in the future.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You want to go after personal aims with a vengeance; if you plan your time well, you can do just that and handle business also. Listen to what a clever person has to suggest. Haphazard activity could have you running around in circles, though.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you try to get out of that obligation you have assumed, you can certainly come a cropper now. Try to assist others with their troublesome affairs. You are a fine humanitarian at heart.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You cannot rely on usually helpful friends today since they are preoccupied with their own affairs, so handle matters well by yourself. A poised attitude is wise when dealing with others. Have a delightful time socially in p.m.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Use courtesy in dealing with others or you really get into trouble. Safeguard your reputation and be on the safe side. Drive with utmost care in p.m. if you have to go out.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You are tempted to make some radical changes now but the time is not right for such, so wait a better day. Sit down and plan new arrangements first. Show you are an expert in whatever you do.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) There are responsibilities you have to handle, so get at them though you may not be in the right mood for such. Mate may be in a bad mood. It would not be a good idea to ask the reason.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Understand what it is a good partner has to say instead of trying to follow your own way of thinking now. This could be very helpful to mutual affairs. Avoid arguments that are annoying.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Many tasks face you and there is no more ideal day than this to get them out of the way efficiently. Plan more time for rest later so you rebuild your energies. Do a little reading and relax before you retire.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are able to get into the amusements you enjoy now with congenial after you have done your work well. Show more affection for mate. Buy some thoughtful gift that will please. Early to bed tonight.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) The situation at home is apt to be very tense, so get busy making everything there more harmonious. Show you have understanding for others. Don't discuss any controversial subjects and start a serious argument.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — City National Bank of Columbus has spent the last eight months trying to find out if people like you can be weaned away from checks and cash.

City National would give you a magnetized credit card instead.

Art Kelly, the young City National officer who is running the experiment says, "Something has to be done to cut both the cost of checking accounts to customers and to relieve the paperwork that is just about out of hand."

In the City National concept—machines, which would substitute for bank windows and tellers—would be scattered around something like soft drink machines, perhaps in parking lots of big industrial plants or in stores.

At the moment, City National is trying to figure out if there's enough profit in the scheme. BankAmericard, one of the largest credit card firms, is a partner with City National in the experiment.

Two hundred sixty U.S. banks and financial institutions in Japan, France, Sweden, Denmark, England, Canada, Puerto Rico and West Germany also want to know the answers. All have sent representatives to find out what City National has been doing.

What City National did last October was to issue magnetized BankAmericard cards in affluent Upper Arlington, a Columbus suburb of about 40,000. The magnetic stripe on the back tells a computer who owns it.

The bank also signed up 27 firms and installed card terminals at their cash registers. Card terminals essentially are push-button telephones hooked up to a central computer.

Then the bank made the computer talk back with a vocabulary of 24 words.

You buy. A clerk pushes in the sales total. The computer voice repeats the charge. If it's correct, then a computer credit the business with the amount of the purchase and debits the customer's bank account with the same amount.

In just 14 seconds, the seller has his money. The customer didn't have to handle cash or write a check, and the bank acquired an automatic record. The bank clearing house was relieved of paperwork.

In eight months of this experiment, $500,000 in 30,000 transactions have gone through the computer. Sixteen of the 27 firms already have said they would like to make the system permanent, six others gave favorable reactions and three said they were "marginal about the program."

Still to be heard from officially is the customer. That will come out of a report by Field Research Inc., of San Francisco. But some unofficial observations are possible.

"Customers just don't want to be bothered," said Kelly. "They just want to do their shopping without trouble one way or the other."

Officials say they fear customer resistance. People are used to writing checks, charging now and paying later, and going to the bank to deposit pay checks.

Then there's what the bankers call "float." You buy a television set on your department store credit card a day or so past your billing date. You know you won't be billed for a month and will have the usual 25 days for payment.

Or, perhaps, you write a check Friday afternoon, knowing it can't clear until Monday and by then you'll have deposited money to cover it. That's float.

City National figures it may break this habit with replacement benefits—perhaps interest on checking accounts, investing savings in mutual funds for greater interest above certain levels, and the like. The format hasn't been worked out.

So, the day may come when your firm will deposit your salary by computer transfer to your bank.

In case of theft or loss of cards, said Kelly, the customer phones the bank and the "computer will refuse to okay any charge whatever for his card."

AUGUST 1952
20 YEARS AGO

An express Greyhound bus roaring north through an early morning fog with 22 passengers left the pavement of Route 104 just north of Circleville and plunged into a shallow creek. No one was injured, but the bus was heavily damaged.

Circleville's effort in the round-the-clock air watch requested by the Air Defense Command was beginning to fade out. The city's share in the civilian defense air observatory, undertaken here despite an obvious lack of enthusiasm, was handicapped from the beginning by a shortage of volunteer watchers.

Men willing to stand watch at the Elsea Airport post during the hours between midnight and dawn were especially hard to find. Ashville quit its skywatch program.

Sheriff deputies pondered over the strange case of dirty socks, burned matchsticks and marshmallows. Ralph Meinfelter, Route 3, discovered when he returned from vacation that someone had been an uninvited guest at his residence during his absence. Entering through a basement window, the intruder napped on a couch, left a pair of dirty socks there and carried in some type of marshmallow candies. He apparently also bathed and shaved before leaving.

Circleville's American Legion drum and bugle corps hit a new high score for the outfit, winning third place in the Legion's statewide competition at Columbus. The unit won first place in the strict inspection section of the contest — for the appearance of individual entries. They were wearing uniforms which had been used since 1948, while a Cincinnati post, which had just purchased $4,000 of new equipment, lost out in that judging.

James L. Yost was elected president of the Pickaway County Agricultural Society, replacing J. Beryl Stevenson who had held the post for two years. Stevenson continued his service with the fair board as a director.

Mrs. Margaret Bradbury of Gallipolis, new superintendent of Berger Hospital, formerly assumed her duties here replacing Mrs. Caroline Dennis.

Special of the weekend from Lindsey's bakery — a "Try-Me Cake." The three-layer cake boasted one layer each of chocolate, white and yellow cake and cost 49 cents. Also new on the menu was a black walnut breakfast roll, guaranteed delicious.

When a boiler at the Esmeralda canning plant failed due to breakage of bushing on the boiler feed line, emergency steps were taken to maintain the plant's output and avoid spoilage. A hurried call to the Norfolk and Western railroad brought a locomotive from the Columbus yards to serve as a substitute boiler unit.

The J. H. Butt softballers tumbled out of the invitational tournament after a good showing. They lost their place by losing a game to a Columbus team. Dick Wellington was pitcher for the losing team.

The Decision Of Death

A medical debate that's been going on for at least a generation has reached the Senate Special Committee on Aging: the question of who would make the decision — and under what circumstances — on allowing a fellow human being to die.

Sen. Frank Church, the chairman, said the hearings "are not floating trial balloons on proposals for governmental action." Rather, he said, they are an attempt to gain "a greater public understanding of the issues before we can even begin to think about changes in public policy."

That's the dilemma, to ever come up with any public declaration on anything as private as death.

Conflict Management

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
MIAMI BEACH — In spite of incidents in front of posh hotels and in the streets leading to the convention hall, the evidence offered during Republican week at Miami Beach is that the esoteric new science of conflict management has come of age. Mayor Richard Daley's Chicago police should have been on hand to watch the clever maneuvering that diverted the energies of antagonistic protesting groups into futile civil war as the Republican delegates, with a lone McCloskey dissenter went about their euphoric business of crowning King Richard.

The Yippies, Zippies, Hippies, and Skinny-Dippies in Flamingo Park might have come to Miami Beach with ideas of confronting King Richard in the name of peace. The Vietnam Veterans Against the War were certainly there for martially pacifistic purposes that had been approved by the McGovernite way back in July. The Cuban Americans, both first and second generation, however, had different ideas: They want war on Castro, and more than 2,000 of them marched against the "Anglo" Vietnam Veterans on the day the convention was officially opened.

Meanwhile, someone adroitly drew the shades of Miami Beach High School when the Vietnam anti-war veterans tried to lure the national guardsmen inside the building into deserting their posts. The Zippi hung an effigy of Nixon's friend, Evangelist Billy Graham, but fundamentalist Carl McIntire, demonstrating against the Jesus (CAP F) Freaks, made it a business of Christian against Christian in the streets, a diversion that let the chaplains inside the convention hall go their unimpeded ways.

The Miami Beach police, who might have turned back all the protesters at the long causeways that connect "Sun City" with the Florida mainland, had, with Singular Sangfroid, let the "Enemy" into the protected territory of Flamingo Park. They knew, as Chicago's Dick Daley did not know in 1968, that the way to deal with dissent is to let it recoil on itself. There is a self-defeating "Dissidence of Dissent" as Ralph Waldo Emerson put it more than a century ago.

One of the dissidence-dissent groups in Flamingo Park happened to be a black-power group called the National Self-Help Party. This is the newly created political arm of Dr. Thomas Matthew's NEGRO, or National Economic Growth and Reconstruction Organization. The black self-helpers had come to Miami Beach to hold their own convention, replete with a platform preamble applauding President Nixon's "Innovative moves in foreign policy," but calling upon the Republicans to set up a Minority Economics Board to support self-help domestic concepts. To have pro-Nixon blacks inside of Flamingo Park was something of a switch. It added to the assurance of the conflict managers that dissidence would cancel dissidence.

Dr. Matthew is under no illusions that he can shift Huge Blocs of black voters to the Republican party this autumn. But he has a bullet strategy in mind. With his own army of reformed drug addicts, school dropouts, and multi-generation welfare recipients, he plans to hit a few states in which the black vote is the swing vote. It is not that he thinks the Nixon administration has done all it could to promote black capitalism and other self-help measures that would improve the lot of blacks living in Harlem and South Chicago. Dr. Matthew knows that he will get nothing without exerting continuous political pressure, which would ordinarily dictate working with the "outs" in an election year. But Dr. Matthew doesn't think Sen. George McGovern is the man to aid the black self-help cause.

"McGovern," he told the national self-help party convention, "is no better and no worse than any other politician. It is not the fact that he is a sanctimonious hypocrite that should cause black Americans to vote against him. It is the fact that he is inept and incapable of fulfilling the responsibilities of the presidency that should lead us to reject his candidacy."

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

MILES CITY, MONT. (AP) — The cowboy is known as a range rider here in "the biggest little cow town on earth," and he is far from a vanished figure.

He may ride to work in a pickup truck or, on occasion, a helicopter. Instead of $30 or $40 a month and found, he may now draw $300 or more, plus his cookies and a place to sling his bedroll.

But he is still at home on the back of a horse, the work can be every bit as dangerous as it was in the frontier past, and his shop talk is as colorful as that of any American occupation.

Some of the range rider's picturesque terms have been collected in "Cowboy Slang," by Edgar R. Potter, Montana historian. It is a language marked by variety, vivid expletives and exaggerated comparisons.

For example, the range rider had at least 40 different words to characterize his horse. He called it everything from "bangtail," "boneyard" and "Knot-wringtail."

And to him a horse could be any of 38 different colors. They included albino, blue roan, flea-bitten grey, strawberry roan and zebra dun.

Saloon keepers called the stuff they pushed across the bar to cowboys whisky. What the cowboys called it, however, was "bug juice," "gut warmer," "nose paint," "red eye," "rotgut," "scamper juice," "snake poison" or "tonsil varnish."

When flaring tempers ended in flaming guns, the victim wasn't simply killed. Someone "made wolf meat out of him," "put a window in his skull," "hung up his hide," "curled him up," or "dabbled in his gore. At the very least he "bit the dust" or someone "blowed out his lamp."

THURSDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

You find you are quite nervous and restless now and need to be very careful you are not forgetting promises. You are thinking with good logic, but have trouble carrying through with the sensible decisions you make. Be steadfast.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) A more balanced attitude is best, since you can be very stingy one minute and overly extravagant the next. Do contact an adviser you can trust. Make the investment that will lead to greater security in the future.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You want to go after personal aims with a vengeance; if you plan your time well, you can do just that and handle business also. Listen to what a clever person has to suggest. Haphazard activity could have you running around in circles, though.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you try to get out of that obligation you have assumed, you can certainly come a cropper now. Try to assist others with their troublesome affairs. You are a fine humanitarian at heart.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You cannot rely on usually helpful friends today since they are preoccupied with their own affairs, so handle matters well by yourself. A poised attitude is wise when dealing with others. Have a delightful time socially in p.m.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Use courtesy in dealing with others or you really get into trouble. Safeguard your reputation and be on the safe side. Drive with utmost care in p.m. if you have to go out.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You are tempted to make some radical changes now but the time is not right for such, so wait a better day. Sit down and plan new arrangements first. Show you are an expert in whatever you do.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) There are responsibilities you have to handle, so get at them though you may not be in the right mood for such. Mate may be in a bad mood. It would not be a good idea to ask the reason.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Understand what it is a good partner has to say instead of trying to follow your own way of thinking now. This could be very helpful to mutual affairs. Avoid arguments that are annoying.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Many tasks face you and there is no more ideal day than this to get them out of the way efficiently. Plan more time for rest later so you rebuild your energies. Do a little reading and relax before you retire.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are able to get into the amusements you enjoy now with congenials after you have done your work well. Show more affection for mate. Buy something thoughtful gift that will please. Early to bed tonight.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) The situation at home is apt to be very tense, so get busy making everything there more harmonious. Show you have understanding for others. Don't discuss any controversial subjects and start a serious argument.

TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those very restless young people who early in life will require much rest and a very good diet to build up the body, so be sure to put to bed early even though this child wants to stay up late and be peevish. Slant the education along lines that will place your offspring before the public, whether as a salesperson, on the rostrum, entertaining, or whatever. Teach early to complete whatever has once been started. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Our baby is three weeks old. From the day he was born his eyes ran profusely.

We have been told that he has slight trouble with his tear ducts which can easily be cured, but nevertheless we are very concerned that this might affect his vision eventually.

Mrs. M. M., Nev.

A tiny duct, or opening, narrower than an ordinary pin, runs from the lower lid into the nose. This is known as the nasolacrimal duct. Excessive tears normally run through this duct into the nose.

Some children are born with a very small stricture, or narrowing, of this duct. Tears do not easily flow through it and they overflow onto the face. This is known as epiphora.

Infection can also cause temporary inflammation and narrowing of the duct. This occurs in adults, too, for a variety of reasons.

The opening of the duct is called the punctum. Through this, a fine delicate probe can be passed into the duct, to open it and to instill medicine. Sometimes, a drop of a special dye is used to see if it passes freely into the nose.

The condition is not a serious one. You can be sure that this common, often temporary, disturbance will not affect your newborn child's vision.

What causes a bunion? Why would it occur on one foot and not on another?

Mrs. P. T., Calif.

A bunion, technically known as hallux valgus, is an inflammation or a thickening of the bursa, or sac, of the joint of the big toe. The name "bunion" originates from "bounion," meaning "turnip" in Greek.

Unusual pressure of the metatarsal joint by shoes causes a thickening of the bone and an inflammation of its covering.

As a protective device, nature pours out more calcium and the enlargement occurs. Usually, it occurs on both feet for obvious reasons that both shoes are ill-fitting. Unusual pressure from one shoe however, is possible.

An early bunion is treated by cutting out the shoe over the pressure area. Specially constructed shoes can take the pressure off this area and prevent the bunion from becoming bigger.

When the bunion is incapacitating, surgery in carefully selected cases is very effective.

Slouching in a soft chair for many hours can be harmful to the back. It is wise to get up, stretch, and move around, both for the back and for circulation. This is a good idea, too, while driving an automobile on a long trip.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — City National Bank of Columbus has spent the last eight months trying to find out if people like you can be weaned away from checks and cash.

City National would give you a magnetized credit card instead.

Art Kelly, the young City National officer who is running the experiment says, "Something has to be done to cut both the cost of checking accounts to customers and to relieve the paperwork that is just about out of hand."

In the City National concept—machines, which would substitute for bank windows and tellers—would be scattered around something like soft drink machines, perhaps in parking lots of big industrial plants or in stores.

At the moment, City National is trying to figure out if there's enough profit in the scheme. BankAmericard, one of the largest credit card firms, is a partner with City National in the experiment.

Two hundred sixty U.S. banks and financial institutions in Japan, France, Sweden, Denmark, England, Canada, Puerto Rico and West Germany also want to know the answers. All have sent representatives to find out what City National has been doing.

What City National did last October was to issue magnetized BankAmericard cards in Columbus. The cards, a Columbus suburb of about 40,000. The magnetic stripe on the back tells a computer who owns it.

The bank also signed up 27 firms and installed card terminals at their cash registers. Card terminals essentially are push-button telephones hooked up to a central computer.

Then the bank made the computer talk back with a vocabulary of 24 words.

You buy. A clerk pushes in the sales total. The computer voice repeats the charge. If it's correct, then a computer credits the business with the amount of the purchase and debits the customer's bank account with the same amount.

In just 14 seconds, the seller has his money. The customer didn't have to handle cash or write a check, and the bank acquired an automatic record. The bank clearing house was relieved of paperwork.

In eight months of this experiment, $500,000 in 30,000 transactions have gone through the computer. Sixteen of the 27 firms already have said they would like to make the system permanent, six others gave favorable reactions and three said they were "marginal about the program."

Still to be heard from officially is the customer. That will come out of a report by Field Research Inc., of San Francisco. But some unofficial observations are possible.

"Customers just don't want to be bothered," said Kelly. "They just want to do their shopping without trouble one way or the other."

Officials say they fear customer resistance. People are used to writing checks, charging now and paying later, and going to the bank to deposit pay checks.

Then there's what the bankers call "float." They say a television set on your department store credit card a day or so past your billing date. You know you won't be billed for a month and will have the usual 25 days for payment.

Or, perhaps, you write a check Friday afternoon, knowing it can't clear until Monday and by then you'll have deposited money to cover it. That's float.

City National figures it may break this habit with replacement benefits—perhaps interest on checking accounts, investing savings in mutual funds for greater interest above certain levels, and the like. The format hasn't been worked out.

So, the day may come when your firm will deposit your salary by computer transfer to your bank.

In case of theft or loss of cards, said Kelly, the customer phones the bank and the "computer will refuse to okay any charge whatever for your card."

20 YEARS AGO

An express Greyhound bus roaring north through an early morning fog with 22 passengers left the pavement of Route 104 just north of Circleville and plunged into a shallow creek. No one was injured, but the bus was heavily damaged.

Circleville's effort in the round-the-clock air watch requested by the Air Defense Command was beginning to fade out. The city's share in the civilian defense air observatory, undertaken here despite an obvious lack of enthusiasm, was handicapped from the beginning by a shortage of volunteer watchers. Men willing to stand watch at the Elsea Airport post during the hours between midnight and dawn were especially hard to find. Ashville quit its skywatch program.

Sheriff deputies pondered over the strange case of dirty socks, burned matchsticks and marshmallow candies. Ralph Meinfelder, Route 3, discovered when he returned from vacation that someone had been an uninvited guest at his residence during his absence. Entering through a basement window, the intruder napped on a couch, left a pair of dirty socks there and carried in some type of marshmallow candies. He apparently also bathed and shaved before leaving.

Circleville's American Legion drum and bugle corps hit a new high score for the outfit, winning third place in the Legion's statewide competition at Columbus. The unit won first place in the strict inspection section of the contest — for the appearance of individual entries. They were wearing uniforms which had been used since 1948, while a Cincinnati post, which had just purchased $4,000 of new equipment, lost out in that judging.

James L. Yost was elected president of the Pickaway County Agricultural Society, replacing J. Beryl Stevenson who had held the post for two years. Stevenson continued his service with the fair board as a director.

Mrs. Margaret Bradbury of Gallipolis, new superintendent of Berger Hospital, formerly assumed her duties here replacing Mrs. Caroline Dennis.

Special of the weekend from Lindsey's bakery — a "Try-Me Cake." The three-layer cake boasted one layer each of chocolate, white and yellow cake and cost 49 cents. Also new on the menu was a black walnut breakfast roll, guaranteed delicious.

When a boiler at the Esmeralda cannery failed due to breakage of bushing on the boiler feed line, emergency steps were taken to maintain the plant's output and avoid spoilage. A hurried call to the Norfolk and Western railroad brought a locomotive from the Columbus yards to serve as a substitute boiler unit.

The J. H. Butt softballers tumbled out of the invitational tournament after a good showing. They lost their place by losing a game to a Columbus team. Dick Wellington was pitcher for the losing team.

BUS ROUTES

After talking with just one bus driver to determine the route and approximate time of student pick-up I threw in the towel in so far as attempting to inform Westfall district readers on bus schedules. This is information that should be released in its entirety from the district office. My intention was to give further information as to rural area in and around our village in conjunction with that released last week for our village but it was going to develop into more than I felt secure in handling at this writing.

I would suggest that those with questions contact the school offices. Just get ready bright and early Wednesday morning students and parents—pray a little!

Round-Up

Mary Clark, chairman of the cake and pie baking contests, announces that entries may be registered from 10:30 a.m. until noon. None will be accepted after the deadline time. The contest is open to all persons employed and/or living in the Westfall School District. Those outside the district (or inside for that matter) who would like to donate a cake or pie for the sole purpose of being auctioned off in order to contribute to the Booster Club coffers are cordially invited to do so.

A trophy will be given for the best cake and the best pie. Any kind of cake and any kind of pie may be entered in competition.

Who's New?

We welcome into our community William and Polle Buskirk and children who recently purchased the late Ruby Clark's residence. Formerly of Circleville, Mr. Buskirk is with the Circleville Post Office.

Their children are Gina, age 13, who will attend junior high classes at Westfall; Vicki, age 10, will be a fifth grader at Jackson elementary and Little Bill, age 3, a member of the tricycle, sand pile crowd.

We sincerely hope the family will experience a pleasurable way of living in our fair village.

Already they have entertained Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Lovelace and children Jeanie, Sandra and Sharon of Kansas. The Lovelaces were formerly with the First Church of Christ in Christian Union, Circleville. Other visitors in their new home have been Mr. and Mrs. Guy Leatherwood and daughter Sonya and her husband Neal Frazier and their daughter Missy (short for Melissa) of Little Walnut.

Our old neighbors are our new neighbors! How about that? It's like this—Tom and Glenda Cook and their four, Debbie, Pam, Tom and Doug were for many years our neighbors just across the alley. Now they have moved over on Main St. and have become our neighbors across the street. The loss of Water St. is Main Street's gain—a fine family. Hi neighbor!

State Fair

Last call to any senior citizen interested in purchasing a ticket at half price for the Ohio State Fair (Expo 72). I will have the tickets until Sept. 1 at which time they will be returned to Mrs. Twyla Lorentz at the Senior Center. September 1 is also the day that all items may be taken to the United Methodist Church annex to be sold by the church women the next day from 9:30 a.m. until evening at a rummage type sale. Any further information needed may be obtained from general chairman, Mrs. Walter Wright.

Plans are going full speed ahead for the upcoming Williamsport Sulphur Spring Festival to be held Sept. 13 through 17. A news release concerning the Festival only will be shortly forthcoming.

The Westfall band returned home Saturday from Camp Kirkwood, Wilmington where they had been working Wednesday evening was diligently on routines for a week. Parents' Night and as usual many parents journeyed over to lend moral support and be entertained by a practice session. Our in Carle country we have daughter Donna home for a week's visit with Lawrence and Dorothy after a two weeks vacation at Lake Sunapee, N.H. and parts of Maine and along the Atlantic Ocean. and near Kingston for eight days. She visited with Uncle Herk and Aunt "Billie" Herstein of Londonderry and Uncle Roger and Aunt "Jackie" Minor, too.

As this is being written, late Sunday night, our family awaits the arrival of Poppy Bill and Marc from their four day sojourn to the Tri-State Antique Engine show at Portland, Ind. Carmen returned home last Sunday after a week's visit with my sister Norma Gillfillan and family of Troy.

Jim and Rosie Picklesimer and their three, Mindy, Kelly and J. F. hosted a family reunion this Sunday at their home. Numbering fifty-two, the guests ate the carry-in dinner at tables set up on the lawn. One thing for sure, they couldn't have had a more beautiful day for the family affair.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Smoking Endangers Nonsmokers

DEAR ABBY: I am a hired companion to an 88-year-old invalid woman. She is very wealthy and lives in a luxurious mobile home with every convenience you would imagine. I occupy the back bedroom of her mobile home. I am well paid, but here's my problem:

This lady smokes constantly and has frequently fallen asleep with a lit cigaret between her fingers.

I work from 6 a.m. until 10 p.m. caring for her, and I need my rest, but I'm afraid to go to sleep because she gets up during the night, lights a cigaret and falls asleep.

This lady is friendly with the manager of the trailer court, who knows about her smoking, but does nothing about it. Her doctor also knows because I have told him. He also has done nothing.

Abby, I am so afraid that one night she will set fire to this mobile home. What can be done?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: You must persuade the lady that for her own safety she must either turn in her matches at bedtime or hire a companion for the night shift. And for heaven's sake, implore her doctor and the manager of the court to take some action!

DEAR ABBY: If a girl is single and free to date, has a child, and a fellow wants to take her out, should the fellow pay for the babysitter? Or should the gal pay for it herself? In this case, the girl has limited funds, and the man is aware that she has a child.

Should she just drop a hint, or come right out and say, "I'm sorry, I can't go out this evening because I can't afford a sitter," and then wait for him to offer or what?

I feel that if a man can afford to date a girl, he should consider the sitter part of the expense of dating, right?

SHORT OF MONEY
DEAR SHORT: Paying the sitter should be the mother's responsibility. If the gentleman offers to pay for the sitter, fine, but anything resembling a "hint" would be in poor taste.

DEAR ABBY: I am in my early 20s and have been married for five years. Neither my husband nor I want children. We do not like children, and we do not need them. Ever since we have been married, all I have heard from the community is, "When are you going to have children?" I am so sick and tired of hearing this asinine and rude question that I could scream. I am beginning to feel as though I should have been a salmon - a simple creature that lives only to spawn and then die. That is the way most people seem to regard young married women.

Well, I have news for them! I am perfectly happy with my life as it is. I have no desire or "urge" to have children. I have a good job that makes me feel needed and useful. I feel as though I am doing my part for mankind in earning my own support and doing a much needed job. And if those nosy people think that I am missing the "joy" of supporting children, just let them look at my tax bills. I'm busy enough supporting children of those people who don't have enough sense to use birth control. I don't need any more bills.

I'm no dope - I have a good mind, and I contribute as much to the working force as any man, and I think that if that is enough for my satisfaction, it should satisfy the old biddies in the community.

So, please, Dear Abby, tell these rude and insensitive people to stop trying to make a girl feel useless unless she has a dozen kids trailing behind her. I am as useful and feminine as any mother (more than most) and I intend to stay that way. The doldrums of child-raising are not for me. Give me a challenging and rewarding business career any day!

SIGNED: SMART - NOT SENTIMENTAL
DEAR SMART: You've already told 'em. But good!

Auto Price Hikes Nixed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Price Commission Tuesday denied requests by Ford and General Motors for price increases on their 1973 models.

Commissioner Chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr. said the request of the two giant automakers was being denied because the commission has determined that the increases could push the profit margins of the two firms beyond permissible limits.

The decision meant that consumers would expect to avoid a price hike on GM and Ford cars at least until November. Grayson said that the two companies may resubmit requests after profit figures are in for the second quarter of their fiscal year.

Ford, in a request revised this week, had asked for a $59 or 1.79 per cent increase. The request covered safety equipment and emission controls.

General Motors had asked for a $54 or 1.53 per cent boost for the same purpose.

Chrysler Corp. and American Motors also have requests pending before the commission. Grayson said these requests would continue to be suspended until the commission can hold hearings on auto prices next month.

BUS ROUTES

After talking with just one bus driver to determine the route and approximate time of student pick-up I threw in the towel in so far as attempting to inform Westfall district readers on bus schedules. This is information that should be released in its entirety from the district office. My intention was to give further information as to rural area in and around our village in conjunction with that released last week for our village but it was going to develop into more than I felt secure in handling at this writing.

I would suggest that those with questions contact the school offices. Just get ready bright and early Wednesday morning students and parents—pray a little!

Who's New?

We welcome into our community William and Pollie Buskirk and children who recently purchased the late Ruby Clark's residence. Formerly of Circleville, Mr. Buskirk is with the Circleville Post Office.

Their children are Gina, age 13, who will attend junior high classes at Westfall; Vicki, age 10, will be a fifth grader at Jackson elementary and Little Bill, age 3, a member of the tricycle, sand pile crowd.

We sincerely hope the family will experience a pleasurable way of living in our fair village.

Already they have entertained Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Lovelace and children Jeanie, Sandra and Sharon of Kansas. The Lovelaces were formerly with the First Church of Christ in Christian Union, Circleville.

Other visitors in their new home have been Mr. and Mrs. Guy Leatherwood and daughter Sonya and her husband Neal Frazier and their daughter Missy (short for Melissa) of Little Walnut.

Our old neighbors are our new neighbors! How about that? It's like this—Tom and Glenda Cook and their four, Debbie, Pam, Tom and Doug were for many years our neighbors just across the alley. Now they have moved over on Main St. and have become our neighbors across the street. The loss of Water St. is Main Street's gain—a fine family. Hi neighbor!

State Fair

Last call to any senior citizen interested in purchasing a ticket at half price for the Ohio State Fair (Expo 72). I will have the tickets until Sept. 1 at which time they will be returned to Mrs. Twyla Lorentz at the Senior Center. September 1 is also the day that all items may be taken to the United Methodist Church annex to be sold by the church women the next day from 9:30 a.m. until evening at a rummage type sale. Any further information needed may be obtained from general chairman, Mrs. Walter Wright.

Plans are going full speed ahead for the upcoming Williamsport Sulphur Spring Festival to be held Sept. 13 through 17. A news release concerning the Festival only will be shortly forthcoming.

Lutheran Wedding Rites Unite Steinhäuser-Souers

MR. AND MRS. GEOFFREY R. SOUERS

Yellow and orange floral arrangements graced the altar of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Circleville, for the July 29 wedding of Miss Suzanne Steinhäuser and Mr. Geoffrey R. Souers.

Pastor Carl Zehner officiated at the double ring ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Steinhäuser, Route 3, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Souers, Dover, O.

Miss Patricia Schleich, Circleville, organist, and Miss Karen Stitzlein, of Loudonville, soloist, presented a program of music preceding the ceremony. Both are college choirmates of the bride.

Given in marriage by her mother and father, the bride wore a full length gown of white satin with attached train, trimmed in wide lace at the empire waist, neckline and bell sleeves. A crown headpiece held the three-tiered shoulder length bouffant veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and orange flowers.

Mrs. Joe Shultz Shrimplin, the bride's college roommate from Loudonville, served as matron of honor. She was attired in a gown of yellow satin with a multi-color floral overdress of chiffon. The long-sleeved dress was trimmed in green satin ribbon and Mrs. Shrimplin wore a matching picture hat.

Williamsport United Methodist Church Setting Of Carter-Greenwood Marriage

The Williamsport United Methodist Church was the setting August 12 at 2:30 p.m. for the open church ceremony which united Miss Terry Lynn Carter and Mr. Charles Ronald Greenwood.

Reverend Richard R. Crosby performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with sunburst arrangements of pink and yellow gladioli, baby's breath, and seven-branch candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carter, Route 2, Circleville. Mr. Greenwood is the son of Mrs. M. Schleich Greenwood, Route 1, Williamsport.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, was escorted to the altar by her father. She selected for her wedding day a gown of chantilly lace with a fitted bodice and sabrina neckline, trimmed with seed pearls and crystals. The gown was accented with chantilly lace sleeves which delicately ended in points over the back of her hands. Her redingote edged in chantilly lace continued into a chapel train. A pearl and organza petal crown held her silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of snow white carnations and baby's breath centered with a corsage of 3 pink and 3 yellow sweetheart roses. The arrangement topped a small Bible given to the bride by her godparents in England. It was covered with lace from her mother's wedding dress and tucked inside was a handkerchief which had been tatted by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Charles W. Schleich.

Attending the bride was Miss Beth Abbott as maid of honor. Miss Barbara Carter and Mrs. Don Smith, cousins of the bride, served as bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of pink and yellow floral chiffon, featuring scoop necks, princess lines and accented with touches of white lace at the empire waists and on the short puffed sleeves. They wore short white gloves trimmed with lace, and silver heart-shaped necklaces, gifts of the bride.

Their colonial-style arrangements of pink and yellow mums and baby's breath were carried in white baskets, adorned with bows and streamers, tied in lovers knots.

The maid of honor wore a yellow picture hat and the bridesmaids wore pink hats, which were accented with bands of fabric, matching their dresses.

Greg Rickabaugh performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Mark Carter, brother of the bride; Donald Greenwood, brother of the groom; and Ted Rogers. They wore summer tuxedos, white ruffled shirts trimmed with black and their boutonnières coordinated in color with the girls' hats.

Serving as acolyte at his sister's wedding was eight-year old Steven Carter. Miss Nancy Keller played many favorite selections on the organ, including the Wedding Prayer, while the bride and groom knelt in silence. The candlelight ceremony was the first act of the newly-married couple, in which the minister participated and explained the meaning of the church in the newly-established home.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue embroidered A-line dress. She wore complementary accessories and her corsage was of pink and yellow mums. The bridegroom's mother wore a one-piece sleeveless double-knit gown with a pink and white scrolled bodice and white accented-pleated skirt. She wore matching pink accessories and corsage.

A reception was held in the church annex immediately following the ceremony. The three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom outlined with a chantilly lace heart. Each layer was separated with white French filigree pillars and accented with doves, bells and pink and yellow roses. The reception table was accented with crystal which had belonged to the groom's great-grandmother, Mrs. Tarbill and Stealy. Serving as hostesses were Mrs. Darrell Carter, aunt of the bride, Mrs. John West, Mrs. William Easterday, and Mrs.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD GREENWOOD

Eugene Schleich. Serving at the gift table were Mrs. Daniel Overly and Miss Roxanne Hulse. Mrs. Carl Benson, aunt of the bride, presided at the guest book.

For wedding trip to Mackinac Island, Sault St. Marie, various stops in Canada and Niagara Falls, the bride changed to a white knit dress trimmed with navy. She accented her outfit with white accessories and the corsage from the center of her wedding bouquet.

The new Mrs. Greenwood is a 1971 graduate of Westfall High School. Mr. Greenwood, also a 1971 graduate of Westfall High School, received training with the United States Air Force before becoming engaged in farming. They are at home at the Tarbill Place, Route 2, Williamsport.

Lutheran Wedding Rites Unite Steinhauser-Souers

MR. AND MRS. GEOFFREY R. SOUERS

Yellow and orange floral arrangements graced the altar of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Circleville, for the July 29 wedding of Miss Suzanne Steinhauser and Mr. Geoffrey R. Souers.

Pastor Carl Zehner officiated at the double ring ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Steinhauser, Route 3, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Souers, Dover, O.

Miss Patricia Schleich, Circleville, organist, and Miss Karen Stitzlein, of Loudonville, soloist, presented a program of music preceding the ceremony. Both are college choirmates of the bride.

Given in marriage by her mother and father, the bride wore a full length gown of white satin with attached train, trimmed in wide lace at the empire waist, neckline and bell sleeves. A crown headpiece held the three-tiered shoulder length bouffant veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and orange flowers.

Mrs. Joe Shultz Shrimplin, the bride's college roommate from Loudonville, served as matron of honor. She was attired in a gown of yellow satin with a multi-color floral overdress of chiffon. The long-sleeved dress was trimmed in green satin ribbon and Mrs. Shrimplin wore a matching picture hat.

Attired in matching gowns and carrying cascades of green were the bridesmaids, Misses Karen and Elaine Steinhauser, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Jeanne Shannon Reid, Circleville, and Miss Nancy Jo Ater, Clarksburg, the bride's cousin.

Miss Kris Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Keller, Ashville, served as flower girl for her cousin. Masters James and Jon Rhoades, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Marion Rhoades, shared the duties of ring bearer for their cousin's marriage.

Charles B. Steinhauser, brother of the bride, was the best man. Ushers were Ken W. Korns, William A. McVaine, John A. Reese and Joe S. Springer, all of Dover.

Mrs. Steinhauser selected a gown of bright lavender chiffon print over lavender satin with long sleeves. Mrs. Souers was attired in a sleeveless turquoise formal gown with matching floorlength coat.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinhauser, Route 1, Clarksburg, and Mr. and Mrs.

Williamsport United Methodist Church Setting Of Carter-Greenwood Marriage

The Williamsport United Methodist Church was the setting August 12 at 2:30 p.m. for the open church ceremony which united Miss Terry Lynn Carter and Mr. Charles Ronald Greenwood.

Reverend Richard R. Crosby performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with sunburst arrangements of pink and yellow gladioli, baby's breath, and seven-branch candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carter, Route 2, Circleville. Mr. Greenwood is the son of Mrs. M. Schleich Greenwood, Route 1, Williamsport.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, was escorted to the altar by her father. She selected for her wedding day a gown of chantilly lace with a fitted bodice and sabrina neckline, trimmed with seed pearls and crystals. The gown was accented with chantilly lace sleeves which delicately ended in points over the back of her hands. Her redingote edged in chantilly lace continued into a chapel train. A pearl and organza petal crown held her silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of snow-white carnations and baby's breath centered with a corsage of 3 pink and 3 yellow sweetheart roses. The arrangement topped a small Bible given to the bride by her godparents in England. It was covered with lace from her mother's wedding dress and tucked inside was a handkerchief which had been tatted by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Charles W. Schleich.

Attending the bride was Miss Beth Abbott as maid of honor. Miss Barbara Carter and Mrs. Don Smith, cousins of the bride, served as bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of pink and yellow floral chiffon, featuring scoop necks, princess lines and accented with touches of white lace at the empire waists and on the short puffed sleeves. They wore short white gloves trimmed with lace, and silver heart-shaped necklaces, gifts of the bride.

Their colonial-style arrangements of pink and yellow mums and baby's breath were carried in white baskets, adorned with bows and streamers, tied in lovers knots. The maid of honor wore a yellow picture hat and the bridesmaids wore pink hats, which were accented with bands of fabric, matching their dresses.

Greg Rickabaugh performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Mark Carter, brother of the bride; Donald Greenwood, brother of the groom; and Ted Rogers. They wore summer tuxedos, white ruffled shirts trimmed with black and their boutonnières coordinated in color with the girls' hats.

Serving as acolyte at his sister's wedding was eight-year old Steven Carter. Miss Nancy Keller played many favorite selections on the organ, including the Wedding Prayer, while the bride and groom knelt in silence. The candlelight ceremony was the first act of the newly-married couple, in which the minister participated and explained the meaning of the church in the newly-established home.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue embroidered A-line dress. She wore complementary accessories and her corsage was of pink and yellow mums. The bridegroom's mother wore a one-piece sleeveless double-knit gown with a pink and white scrolled bodice and white accordion-pleated skirt. She wore matching pink accessories and corsage.

A reception was held in the church annex immediately following the ceremony. The three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom outlined with a chantilly lace heart. Each layer was separated with white French filigree pillars and accented with doves, bells and pink and yellow roses. The reception table was accented with crystal which had belonged to the groom's great-great-grandmothers Tarbill and Steely. Serving as hostesses were Mrs. Darrell Carter, aunt of the bride, Mrs. John West, Mrs. William Easterday, and Mrs.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD GREENWOOD

Eugene Schleich. Serving at the gift table were Mrs. Daniel Overly and Miss Roxanne Hulse. Mrs. Carl Benson, aunt of the bride, presided at the guest book.

For wedding trip to Mackinac Island, Sault St. Marie, various stops in Canada and Niagara Falls, the bride changed to a white knit dress trimmed with navy. She accented her outfit with white accessories and the corsage from the center of her wedding bouquet.

The new Mrs. Greenwood is a 1971 graduate of Westfall High School. Mr. Greenwood, also a 1971 graduate of Westfall High School, received training with the United States Air Force before becoming engaged in farming. They are at home at the Tarbill Place, Route 2, Williamsport.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were from Circleville, Derby, Little Walnut, Columbus, Lancaster, Frankfort, Orient, Gallipolis, New Holland, Clarksburg, Grove City, Mt. Sterling, Stoutsville, Westerville, Ashville, and Mexico City.

STEVE LOWELL
Associated Press Writer
HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Festus straightened from a crouch, dropped his guard and seemed to be waiting.

His opponent stepped in and landed two left jabs. Festus' look of amazement took on a hint of anger, and he brought up his guard, crouched and opened an assault.

Luckily for his opponent, the bell sounded moments later, and that fight in a college fraternity smoker years ago in Colorado was over.

The bout was one of the first bits of acting by Ken Curtis, now a star of TV's "Gunsmoke."

It was long before the character, Festus, was born and back when Curtis — in real life Curt Gates from a ranch his father homesteaded near Lamar, Colo. — was a rugged, young 175-pounder.

Curt not only was good at boxing but played football and staged strength feats like taking on his fraternity brothers one by one.

I was his opponent in that fake match, and since I was no boxer he coached me on how to put on a pretty good show and assured me he would take it easy. Things went well until he left that big opening and I got carried away and stepped in with more poke than planned.

We were freshmen at Colorado College then, and it was later that year that another indication of what the future held for him showed up. Largely through his efforts, the pattern of an annual fraternity-sorority stunt night changed.

Most of our fraternity's "production" was the usual cornball stuff, but at his instigation, in our closing event, we joined in singing a number of songs. The effort got a big hand, and from then on the stunt night was one of similar special efforts by various school groups.

Curt, who bolstered the Colorado College backfield as a blocker, developed his fraternity brothers into a pretty fair group of songsters, and that early effort, along with his ranch background, apparently formed the springboard for a king-size step to Hollywood. He had written a musical and wanted to try to get it published.

"They didn't think anything of my songs," he recalled, "but they liked my singing, and I was put on the staff of NBC."

It was bandman Tommy Dorsey who changed his name. "He thought Gates was too easily misunderstood. So he took the name of one of my brothers, Ken, and added my first name, Curtis."

During World War II, he left Dorsey's band and enlisted in the Army. After his return he joined The Sons of the Pioneers, a representative of Columbia Studios heard him sing "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" and he was asked to do a series of musical Westerns.

Since then he has appeared in a number of movies and TV series and has produced three films. It was in 1963 that he was asked to join the cast of "Gunsmoke."

The Gunsmoke crew finished its fall series shortly before Curt and I met at the Columbia Broadcasting System studios in Hollywood in July.

Probe Plane Crash Fatal To Prince

LONDON (AP) — Government investigators are trying to determine whether an error by Prince William of Gloucester caused the plane he was piloting Monday to crash, killing him and his copilot.

The 30-year-old first cousin of Queen Elizabeth II and businessman Verrill Mitchell had just taken off to compete in a race before a crowd of 50,000 at Wolverhampton. The single-engine Piper Cherokee banked sharply to the left, skimmed the top of a house, clipped a tall tree, then plunged some 60 feet to the ground and burst into flames.

Health Nurse Employed In Hocking

A registered nurse and an assistant clerk have been hired at the Logan-Hocking County health department.

Mrs. Joseph (Maureen Ailes) Sargent of Logan Rt. 2, an RN, has been hired as a health nurse, replacing Mrs. Betty Howard who has moved from the area.

Mrs. Lynn (Judith Radabaugh) Summers, Laurelville, has been hired as part-time assistant clerk replacing Mrs. Paul Ray Campbell, who has moved to Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Sargent, a part-time employee at Hocking Valley Community Hospital, will assume her new job on Sept. 1, and will be serving the western half of Hocking County. She is a graduate of Riverside Methodist Hospital, Columbus, and took additional work at Ohio Northern and Ohio State Universities toward her degree. She previously worked at University Hospital, Columbus, and Licking County Memorial Hospital in Newark.

She and her husband live on Lake Logan Rd. and have a 1½-year-old daughter.

Mrs. Summers is married to the Rev. Lynn Summers. They have two daughters. She is a graduate of Logan Elm High School, attended Circleville Bible College, and has considerable experience in clerical and medical records work. She began working at the health dept. today.

Immunization clinics are held every Friday afternoon from 1:00 to 3:00 in the clinic area of the Logan-Hocking County Health Department, located on Route 664 north, next to the Hocking Valley Community Hospital.

Vision and hearing screening is available for four and five year olds on Friday afternoon. The health department stresses the need for detecting any vision or hearing problems before the child enters school.

The Denver Developmental Screening test is offered for children age 18 months to 30 months to determine any developmental lags. If a problem is found, the child will be referred to the proper clinic for further diagnosis.

A total of 303 immunizations were given in the Health Department in August, including 124 Polio, 111 DPT, 18 DT, and 50 Measles.

Kingston News Report

Mrs. Clarence Maxson of Laurelville was discharged from Mt. Carmel Hospital in Columbus last Monday where she had been a medical patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wiget (Mary Immell) are the parents of a baby boy, David Russell, born August 22 in Chillicothe Hospital. He weighed six pounds, fourteen ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Immell, Kingston Pike, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wiget, of Kingston.

Mr. Homer Watson left Saturday morning to return to his home in Lakeland, Fla. after spending a week with his mother, Mrs. David Adams.

Little Sara Lynn Wiget is convalescing nicely in Children's Hospital where she underwent open heart surgery on Aug. 16.

Representatives of all organizations in Kingston met Friday night to co-ordinate their preparations for Teddy VanHorn Day this Saturday in the Kingston Municipal Park. Efforts are being made to involve as many as possible and to make it a truly community activity.

All who can be asked to donate at least an hour of their time either in helping to set up on Friday night or in booths etc. on Saturday. Contributions of food, potatoes, baked beans, catsup, mustard, pies, cakes are also welcome. There is an all day fish fry, baseball games, a concert by the Adelphi Band and a square dance with music by the Blue Grass Pioneers in the evening. Also, the Fire Departments 'dunking machine' will be in good working order.

For any further information, Mrs. Ronald Leasingham or Gordon Lloyd, Commander of the American Legion Post 291, may be contacted. Proceeds from this day will go to help Van Horn with expenses in connection with a kidney transplant operation that will be performed on Thursday at University Hospital. He entered the hospital on Sunday and his brother, Phillip, who is the donor, will join him there Tuesday or Wednesday.

Sherri Moss returned to her home in Columbus on Monday after spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moss.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fish and children spent last week camping at Rocky Fork Lake.

Fatal Crash Spurs New Safety Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Transportation Safety Board made a half-dozen safety recommendations as the result of 13-vehicle collision in which eight persons were killed and 11 injured in California last year.

The board urged better truck brakes, more secure 'auto doors, new fuel tank standards, improved no-spark electrical circuits and legal action against motorists who stop on the highway to change a flat tire.

The accident occurred northwest of Ventura, Calif., on Aug. 18, 1971. It started with a relatively minor collision between a tractor-semitrailer truck and a flatbed truck.

The tractor truck towing a 40-foot refrigerated semitrailer and carrying 740 crates of cabbage plowed into a station wagon in the other traffic lane, killing its five occupants and ramming five other vehicles together. Sparks ignited spilled gasoline and diesel fuel, setting the vehicles on fire.

Had the produce truck been equipped with a seat belt and had the driver been using it, he would not have been hurled from the truck cab and might have been able to slow the truck sufficiently to prevent the seven fatalities in three of the cars struck by his truck, the board said.

The whole crash series started when a stationwagon towing a small trailer had stopped in the right hand lane because of a flat tire. The driver could not get the vehicle completely onto the shoulder of the highway because of a temporary wooden-slat fence. All the collisions occurred from the rear, to vehicles trying to go on past.

McGovern Plan Seen Nod To Moderates

By EDMOND Le BRENTON Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — George McGovern, ditching the much-disputed idea of a $1,000 "demogrant" for everyone and saying he would like a conservative Southerner to head the Treasury in his administration, appeared today to have reinforced his bid to moderates in the Democratic party and the electorate at large.

The Democratic presidential candidate's new proposals, delivered in a tight-packed speech Tuesday to the New York Society of Security Analysts, met an understandably mixed reaction.

Such tough tax elements as a proposal to end the favorable treatment of capital gains went over, as one analyst put it, like a lead balloon.

But a number of McGovern's Wall Street audience were intrigued by his surprise announcement that, if he were elected, he would offer the Treasury secretaryship to Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Mills is regarded on Capitol Hill as a pragmatist but essentially a conservative. Reached at his home in Kensett, Ark., he did not reject out of hand the possibility of serving in a McGovern administration.

"If he's elected and actually offered it to me, I'd have to think about it," Mills said.

Arthur M. Moren Jr., investment officer for the Chemical Bank of New York, commented that McGovern's tax proposals had not won much support on Wall Street but that the mention of Mills was received enthusiastically because there is "great respect for Mills in the financial community."

Dropping the idea of welfare reform through a $1,000 a person allocation that would be recouped in taxes on the affluent and comfortable, McGovern outlined a plan not unlike President Nixon's, but with a bigger family income base — $4,000 for four persons instead of $2,400. Details were left vague, with the explanation they still were to be worked on.

Other elements of the program McGovern outlined were:

—A $22 billion tax reform package, to be phased in by 1975. Beside taxation of capital gains at regular rates and at the owner's death, it includes a federal subsidy to induce states and cities to discontinue issuance of bonds with tax exempt interest, elimination of the present petroleum depletion allowance and one-year drilling chargeoff, repeal of speeded up depreciation, special real estate writeoffs, favorable treatment of income earned by foreign and export subsidiaries, nonfarmers' agricultural tax shelters along with, ultimately, some tightening of the investment credit.

—Also proposed, though not as an immediate revenue increase, was a new system of estate and gift taxes with rates, like those of the income tax, based on an individual's receipts rather than the size of his estate.

—Reduction of the top-bracket tax rate from 70 per cent to 48 per cent.

—A $15 billion federal contribution to the cost of local schools, to relieve the property tax.

—A $10 billion federal contract program to stimulate the private sector and a $6 billion plan to create public service jobs for a million unemployed.

—Extension and liberalization of Social Security benefits, with financing from Treasury general funds, to reduce welfare rolls by 3 million.

McGovern said the added costs of his program would be more than covered by a $22 billion tax pickup he envisaged for 1975, plus $30 billion savings he expected to make by then in the defense budget.

In presenting his new tax projects, McGovern appeared sensitive to criticism of his earlier proposals as bearing heavily on the rich, but on incomes as low as $12,000 or $15,000.

He emphasized his belief that, if his present program went into effect, "no American whose income comes from wages and salaries would pay one penny more in taxes than he does now."

Moreover, he said, because his reforms are aimed at specific preferences, much ordinary investment income and inheritance would be unaffected.

Comment on McGovern's new

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a McGovern supporter, said the candidate "has come to concrete terms with what is important and what is unimportant. His tax package is much more feasible than it was before."

Colonel Sanders Notes His 82nd Birthday
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Kentucky Fried Chicken magnate Colonel Harland Sanders celebrated his 82nd birthday with a party here for 1,200 orphan children.
The colonel turned things around a bit. He treated the kids to a chicken lunch and then gave each one a portable radio. They helped him blow out his 82 candles.

Nation Favored With Fair Skies, Mild Temperature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair skies and moderate temperatures favored most of the nation today, although there were some exceptions.

Late-summer warmth extended from eastern Washington to North Dakota and over California and Texas.

Scattered showers and thunder showers dampened the middle and south Atlantic Coast and the eastern Gulf Coast. A few vigorous thunderstorms rumbled across the central plains, and isolated storms hit the intermountain West and the Rockies.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 45 at Houlton, Maine, to 86 at Needles, Calif.

Huge estates in Mexico are known as encomiendas.

Beside taxation of capital gains at regular rates and at the owner's death, it includes a federal subsidy to induce states and cities to discontinue issuance of bonds with tax exempt interest, elimination of the present petroleum depletion allowance and one-year drilling chargeoff, repeal of speeded up depreciation, special real estate writeoffs, favorable treatment of income earned by foreign and export subsidiaries, nonfarmers' agricultural tax shelters along with, ultimately, some tightening of the investment credit.

—Also proposed, though not as an immediate revenue increase, was a new system of estate and gift taxes with rates, like those of the income tax, based on an individual's receipts rather than the size of his estate.

—Reduction of the top-bracket tax rate from 70 per cent to 48 per cent.

—A $15 billion federal contribution to the cost of local schools, to relieve the property tax.

—A $10 billion federal contract program to stimulate the private sector and a $6 billion plan to create public service jobs for a million unemployed.

—Extension and liberalization of Social Security benefits, with financing from Treasury general funds, to reduce welfare rolls by 3 million.

McGovern said the added costs of his program would be more than covered by a $22 billion tax pickup he envisaged for 1975, plus $30 billion savings he expected to make by then in the defense budget.

In presenting his new tax projects, McGovern appeared sensitive to criticism of his earlier proposals as bearing heavily ly not only on the rich, but on incomes as low as $12,000 or $15,000.

He emphasized his belief that, if his present program went into effect, "no American whose income comes from wages and salaries would pay one penny more in taxes than he does now."

Moreover, he said, because his reforms are aimed at specific preferences, much ordinary investment income and inheritance would be unaffected. Comment on McGovern's new emphases to some extent followed party lines. Economist Pierre Rinfret, a Nixon adviser, said, "It is obvious that the senator realizes the horrible mistakes of his earlier economic proposals." But Prof. Paul Samuelson of

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a McGovern supporter, said the candidate "has come to concrete terms with what is important and what is unimportant... His tax package is much more feasible than it was before."

Colonel Sanders Notes His 82nd Birthday
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Kentucky Fried Chicken magnate Colonel Harland Sanders celebrated his 82nd birthday with a party here for 1,200 orphan children. The colonel turned things around a bit. He treated the kids to a chicken lunch and then gave each one a portable radio. They helped him blow out his 82 candles.

Nation Favored With Fair Skies, Mild Temperature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fair skies and moderate temperatures favored most of the nation today, although there were some exceptions.

Late-summer warmth extended from eastern Washington to North Dakota and over California and Texas.

Scattered showers and thunder showers dampened the middle and south Atlantic Coast and the eastern Gulf Coast. A few vigorous thunderstorms rumbled across the central plains, and isolated storms hit the intermountain West and the Rockies.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 45 at Houlton, Maine, to 86 at Needles, Calif.

Huge estates in Mexico are known as haciendas.

Court Won't Delay Juan Corona Trial

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP)—A judge has declined to delay the opening of the mass murder trial of Juan Corona, scheduled for Sept. 5.

Agents To Meet

The Pickaway County Insurance Agents Assn. will hold its regular monthly business meeting noon Friday at the Pickaway Arms.

Solano County Superior Court Judge Richard E. Patton on Monday turned down a request by Dist. Atty. Dave Teja that the trial be delayed on grounds that handwriting samples from Corona have not been given to the prosecution.

OU Professor Elected Head Of Commission

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Myron Sturgeon of Athens, an Ohio University geology professor, has been elected the new chairman of the Ohio Recreation and Resources Commission.

Kris Kristofferson Composes From Heart

By ALAN WILSON
Associated Press Writer
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—When Kris Kristofferson looks at you with that bearded boyish face and says he wants to make people weep, laugh and get angry, there's no doubt that he means it. That's because he's been doing just that for the past couple of years—with his songs. Kristofferson's been there, and his songs readily show it.

The way he drives home a deep message, although it doesn't always come easy, usually comes crammed with emotion. His life has been a profound picture of contrast—from a West Point cadet and Rhodes Scholar in the late 50s and early 60s, to a janitor of sorts in a Nashville recording studio, and now to virtual superstar status in the music industry. But the last thing on Kris Kristofferson's mind is himself. Instead, he thinks about producing a good song and talks a lot about his friends. "What's really neat," he said, "is when these old ladies and young kids come up to me and say, 'Hey, that song of yours is just the way I feel.'"

"That's when you've moved somebody and it feels good. To move them emotionally, raise the hair on their arms and make their eyes water. That's what a song is for, or any art for that matter."

"I'm not saying you have to make them cry," he continues. "It's enough just to make them laugh, or get angry, or even smile."

At the point somebody in the recording studio where Kris is working turns up the volume on an album he's trying to put together.

The catchy lines of one of his songs blare across the plush room. Singing with Kris on the song is Rita Coolidge, a striking brunette. The song is about a couple cheating.

"I ain't saying it won't hurt me,"

"But it sure was good while it lasted,"

"I have had my share of the sunshine,"

"I can stand a little rain." The melody and words move Kristofferson visibly. "That's just a damn good sound," he says. "Man, can she sing." He points to Rita with one hand, a beer bottle occupying the other. She's sleeping on a studio couch, worn out from two days of lengthy recording sessions.

That night the two of them zipped up to Canada for a show, only to depart the next day for another appearance—in San Diego, Calif.

"It gets weary, but the shows are getting better and more fun," he says. "For awhile I was really depressed because it got so weary." The improvement, he says, is due in large measure to Rita's presence, both on and off the stage.

Companionship plays an important role in Kristofferson's life. And although Rita has helped matters since the two went on tour last April, Kris still yearns to see his old Nashville friends, most of whom are still struggling.

"They're things that get to you about this business," he complained. "Like piecing yourself out for everybody who wants a piece of you. You just can't see everybody and it hurts you not to."

It's the same type of down-earth feeling that's so evident in Kristofferson's song. "It's a communication," he says of his songs. "More than that, it's a sharing thing. All you can do is just hope they like it."

And like it they have—"Help Me Make It Through The Night," "Me and Bobby McGee," "Sunday Morning Comin' Down," and "For The Good Times" have all won numerous awards for the 31-year-old singer-songwriter.

"You've got to write first off the way you feel," he said, taking a drag from a cigarette, one of about 60 he smokes daily. "You may have a dozen songs that you have to write—and one may come along that's commercial. But I don't write to make it commercial." The something written not from the soul, but for money only.

"I would never start out something that I thought was mediocre," he says. "But I've had songs turn out that way."

Several of his songs that at one time were not accepted are now beginning to click. "When they realized I was writing hit songs—even though I looked funny to them—they'd listen to other guys who didn't necessarily look like Porter Wagoner," he said, dressed in cowboy boots, dungarees, a teeshirt, a Navajo turquoise necklace and a sleeveless inner jacket lining. On the lining was a "McGovern" button.

"But I didn't start it," he conceded. "Bob Dylan had a lot of effect on this town."

Nonetheless, anyone prominent in the Nashville music scene sooner or later owns up to the fact that Kristofferson's style has gone a long way toward broadening the scope of the country music market. It took Kris about five years to do it, too.

"You've got to take a realistic attitude and eventually, if you're lucky, you build up your own reputation."

At present, Kris doesn't have to worry about his reputation. But he's still not fully satisfied with his lifestyle.

"I want to spend more time with Rita and myself," he said. "But I'm not complaining."

"I really don't like to look ahead. I quit playing that role back in 65." Funny thing . . . that's the year he came to Nashville.

Circleville Tigers Hard At Work For Season Opener

With only six lettermen returning from last year's squad, the Circleville Tigers will rely on a solid defense, good conditioning and fine attitude to counteract the lack of depth and experience.

"I'm very optimistic about this team," Circleville coach Larry Cook stated. "These boys have had to learn a new system and have gone through a rigid conditioning program. They have responded very well and are improving every day.

"The attitude, morale and spirit on this club has been great and I'm very pleased with the caliber of players we have," Cook continued.

The forty-member Tiger squad is comprised of 11 seniors, 16 juniors and 13 sophomores with all six lettermen being seniors.

A strong defense, which showed to good advantage in the scrimmage with Groveport, will be the key to the Tigers success this year.

Basically, the Tigers will utilize a 5-2 monster defense with zone pass coverage. They will switch to a four or six man front as needed with some blitzing and stunting to counter the opponents offensive efforts.

"To be a winning team we will have to minimize mistakes and capitalize on the opponents errors," Cook commented. "We feel that good conditioning will be a big factor and be an asset to us in the late stages of the ball games."

On offense the Red and Black will move from the T with multiple formations. The Tigers will display wing, slot, pro set and power I formations to move the ball.

Giants Shut Out Cardinals, Win 3-0

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

National League batters have had their ups and downs lately with San Francisco's Jim Barr ... up they come and down they go.

The 24-year-old right-hander,

who pitched a two-hitter against Pittsburgh last week for his first major league shut-out and retired the last 21 batters, moved down the first 20 St. Louis hitters Tuesday night before Bernie Carbo broke the spell with a clean double and finished with a three-hit 3-0 victory over the Cardinals.

The string of 41 consecutive outs broke the major league baseball mark of 38 set by Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix in 1959, 36 of those coming in his memorable 12 perfect innings against the Milwaukee Braves.

Other National League scores: New York Mets 3, Cincinnati 0; Houston 2, Philadelphia 1; Chicago Cubs 2, Los Angeles 1; Pittsburgh 5, San Diego 3; Montreal 4, Atlanta 3.

Barr, who made 24 relief appearances before getting a start this season, "has earned full-time status as a starter," according to Giants Manager Charlie Fox.

The 6-foot-3, 215-pound University of Southern California grad made only 94 pitches in blanking St. Louis.

Reggie Cleveland of the Cards matched Barr's scoreless hurling until the ninth when Dave Kingman drove in all three runs with a bases-loaded double following an error by third baseman Dwain Anderson, a hit batsman, a sacrifice and an intentional walk to Dave Rader.

LACKING size in the backfield, Circleville will rely on quickness and deceptive speed to offset the shortage of power runners. Good blocking in the front wall should provide opening for the Tigers backs to pick up valuable yardage.

Cook feels that Wilmington and Miami Trace will be the teams to beat in the South Central Ohio League this year. Both squads have key personnel back to form the nucleus of the squads.

As Cook views the picture at the present time, if the Tigers opened today he would start the following offensive unit. But, according to Cook, the way all the boys are working there could be some changes by the time the Tigers take the field Sept. 8 at Grove City.

Mark Spitz, Sandra Neilson Win Golds

MUNICH (AP) — "I'm afraid of everybody," said a smiling Mark Spitz.

The handsome Californian has nothing to fear tonight. It's not until Thursday night that he goes after the fourth of what he hopes will be an incredible seven gold medals.

But starting next week, the United States may have plenty to fear—mainly the thought of an Olympic swimming team without Mark Spitz.

The 22-year-old Indiana University dental student racked up his third world record in garnering his third gold of these 20th Summer Games Tuesday, slashing his way to victory in the men's 200-meter freestyle.

Then he told a television interviewer that, whether or not he achieves his seven-gold goal, these Games will probably be his last international competition.

"I have no plans for swimming any more at all, really," Spitz said. "I won't have the time. I'll swim until Monday."

The bronzed, mustachioed Spitz sliced through the water in the 200 freestyle in 1:52.78, unleashing a torpedo-like final lap to shatter his own world mark of 1:53.50 as well as the Olympic standard of 1:55.29 formerly owned by fourth-place finisher Mark Wenden of Australia.

Winning the silver was UCLA student Steve Genter of Lakewood, Calif. Werner Lampe of West Germany was third.

Spitz, of course, wasn't the only American to do well. The United States already owns 15 medals—five gold, six silver and four bronze. That's six more than runner-up East Germany and eight ahead of the Soviet Union.

One of those golds went Tuesday to a California high school student—the Golden State really seems to be living up to its nickname here—in what has to be one of the biggest upsets of the Games thus far.

Dan Novakov Given Cut, Brown Praise

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Hometown center Dan Novakov was presented with the game ball following the Cincinnati Bengals defeat of the Philadelphia Eagles, cut from the squad and promised a recommendation for a coaching job.

Novakov, who grew up in Cincinnati and was a three-year starter at Notre Dame, played most of the last quarter in Monday night's game.

"He's a fine player," said Bengals Coach Paul Brown of the 6-foot-1, 245-pound lineman, "and if he looks like a midget in there, he makes up for it in fight."

"He'll make someone a good coach, I'd recommend him right now," said Brown. "And he won't forget what he learned from line coach Bill Johnson."

Novakov, a free agent, was cut and Sandy Durko was waived injured. Quarterback Greg Cook was placed on the unable to perform list making him ineligible to practice with Cincinnati until Oct. 15.

The moves cut the Bengals' official roster to 49, although, under National Football League rules, "they also retain three rookies who participated in the College All-Star game this summer."

The rookies are Sherman White, Tommy Casanova and Tom DeLeon. All three played in the All-Star game.

The Bengals report back to camp today to prepare for the exhibition game Sunday at Columbus with the Cleveland Browns.

Jockey Laffit Pincay was the top rider in the nation last year with 380 winners and a world record $3,719,694 in purses.

Activity Hums In Most Big 10 Training Camps

COLUMBUS — Twelve men showed up on the trainer's list of injured players Tuesday, but only defensive tackles Dan Cuttito and Jeff Davis were expected to miss the Ohio State practice session today. Cuttito suffered a strained ankle and Davis a bruised elbow.

IOWA CITY — The Iowa Hawkeyes lost sophomore defensive lineman Larry Bush for the season Tuesday as he underwent an operation for a torn knee cartilage. The pace slackens for the team today as it has completed the last of its two-day preseason drills.

BLOOMINGTON — Freshmen Trent Smoock and Mike Flanagan moved up to wide receiver spots on the second unit football team for Indiana Tuesday, the newcomers taking the spots of two senior lettermen. They were placed on the second squad ahead of Terry Woodburn and Rick Hoffman.

MINNEAPOLIS — The Minnesota Gophers stressed passing and pass defense Tuesday as the squad concentrated on the aspect of the game in which they are considered to be strongest with eight returning lettermen in the defensive backfield.

EVANSTON — Senior Ted Somers and sophomore Mitch Anderson paced the Northwestern Wildcats through drills

LAFAYETTE — Purdue worked on both their kicking game and offense Tuesday as three quarterbacks piloted the Boilermakers through a 20-minute scrimmage. Senior Gary Danielson and juniors Bob Bobrowski and Steve Burke guided the offensive squad at quarterback and six men vied for the punting and placekicking spots vacated last fall by graduation.

EAST LANSING — Michigan State Coach Duffy Daugherty had kickers Bill Simpson and Mark Grua concentrate Tuesday on placing punts within the 10-yard to goal - line range.

Wade Camp, who had been counted on by the Tiger coaches, suffered a broken leg in a non contact drill and will be out of action.

Svare No Longer Nice Guy; Thomas Faces Daily Fine

By TOM EMORY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Harland Svare of the San Diego Chargers is finished playing the role of "Mr. Nice Guy."

Svare announced Tuesday that Duane Thomas, the talented but mysterious running back the Chargers acquired from Dallas, was being suspended and was subject to a fine of a $150 per day for not reporting to the National Football League team Monday.

"Duane Thomas was told to report to training camp by 6 o'clock Monday," said Svare. "He failed to report. He is suspended without compensation. He will be fined $150 each day he is absent."

San Diego gave up sophomore running back Mike Montgomery and second-year wide receiver Billy Parks to get Thomas. Both players had outstanding rookie seasons for the Chargers but Svare, who has said Thomas is the best running back in the NFL since Cleveland's Jimmy Brown, gave up permanent rights to them. Now, after a full month of training camp, Thomas has not practiced.

"I said at the time of the trade for Duane that it was a gamble, a roll of the dice," said the Chargers' coach. "Whatever the outcome, I'm not going to look back. We have a good football team to get ready for the season."

Tuesday was cutdown day for the NFL teams. Each squad was to be reduced to 49 players plus rookies who played in the College All-Star Game. Another five players must be pared from each team by next Tuesday and, of course, the teams must reduce to a 40-player roster for their regular season openers.

Among the veterans put on waivers were running backs Woody Campbell and Mike Richardson by the Houston Oilers; tight end Ray Ogden and running back Bill Tucker by the Chicago Bears and defensive tackle Greg Lons by the Buffalo Bills.

Tug McGraw, Mets Defeat Cincinnati Reds, 3-0

By BILL WINTER

Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP)—Tug McGraw lapped at a plate of spaghetti and gulped a glass of milk, ruminating over the pleasures of his line of work.

"This is some way to make a living," said the New York Mets' ace relief pitcher after he put out a would-be Cincinnati rally in the ninth inning to preserve a 3-0 New York win over the National League's Western Division leaders Tuesday night.

"I can't wait to get in a ball game," said the impish McGraw, shrugging off as mere ill fate the walk he issued to Denis Menke, the first man he faced in the ninth.

McGraw had come on with two out, after starter and eventual winner Jim McAndrew, 10-5, allowed a walk to John Bench and a ground single to left-center by Tony Perez.

After the walk to Menke, McGraw worked pinchhitter Hal McRae to a 1-2 count, then whipped in a screwball that McRae popped up to left for the final out.

"I love to pitch," crowed McGraw. "That's the best thing about being a relief pitcher," he said, savoring his 19th save, "you have a chance to play. And the way they've been using me, it's usually exciting."

McGraw's ninth inning performance capped a sharp pitching duel that saw McAndrew allow only five hits, and loser Jack Billingham, 10-11, allow an identical number through eight innings.

Reliever Clay Carroll allowed the Mets a lone harmless hit in the ninth.

Both starters offered precise performances, but Billingham fed the Mets three home runs

Licher, a pudgy Fairborn pro, was no laughing matter to his opponents. His 68-69-137 start earned him a two-shot lead in the Ohio Open going into today's final 36 holes.

Jim Gerring, a 26-year-old Columbus assistant pro, slipped into second place with the best round Tuesday, a four under par 68 on the 6,675-yard Candywood Golf Club course for 139.

Deadlocked for third were three ominous figures, all with PGA tour experience.

Herman Keiser of Copley, the 1946 Masters champion and two-time Ohio Open king, slipped to 72 and joined PGA tour regulars Bob Lewis Jr. of Warren and Bob Wynn of Kettering, the defending champion, at 140.

Lewis surged into contention with a 69, while Wynn, seeking a third Ohio Open title in a row, settled for a second straight 70.

Demon Dyno won his seventh straight race Tuesday, taking the feature and edging Ace Star by a neck.

Boswell's homer was particularly painful to Billingham, ending his string of 24 scoreless innings pitched.

TEAM manager duties are being handled by Joe Koch, Wes Riley and Mark Hoffman.

"I've been pleased with the overall development of the squad and feel we have made a lot of progress," Cook concluded.

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—"I'm not smart enough to have a game plan," said chuckling Ohio Open leader Chuck Licher, again belittling his own golf game.

TEAM manager duties are being handled by Joe Koch, Wes Riley and Mark Hoffman.

"I've been pleased with the overall development of the squad and feel we have made a lot of progress," Cook concluded.

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—"I'm not smart enough to have a game plan," said chuckling Ohio Open leader Chuck Licher, again belittling his own golf game.

Licher, a pudgy Fairborn pro, was no laughing matter to his opponents. His 68-69-137 start earned him a two-shot lead in the Ohio Open going into today's final 36 holes.

McGraw worked pinchhitter Hal McRae to a 1-2 count, then whipped in a screwball that McRae popped up to left for the final out.

"I love to pitch," crowed McGraw. "That's the best thing about being a relief pitcher," he said, savoring his 19th save, "you have a chance to play. And the way they've been using me, it's usually exciting."

Circleville Tigers Hard At Work For Season Opener

With only six lettermen returning from last year's squad, the Circleville Tigers will rely on a solid defense, good conditioning and fine attitude to counteract the lack of depth and experience.

"I'm very optimistic about this team," Circleville coach Larry Cook stated. "These boys have had to learn a new system and have gone through a rigid conditioning program. They have responded very well and are improving every day.

"The attitude, morale and spirit on this club has been great and I'm very pleased with the caliber of players we have," Cook continued.

The forty-member Tiger squad is comprised of 11 seniors, 16 juniors and 13 sophomores with all six lettermen being seniors.

A strong defense, which showed to good advantage in the scrimmage with Groveport, will be the key to the Tigers success this year.

Basically, the Tigers will utilize a 5-2 monster defense with zone pass coverage. They will switch to a four or six man front as needed with some blitzing and stunting to counter the opponents offensive efforts.

"To be a winning team we will have to minimize mistakes and capitalize on the opponents errors," Cook commented. "We feel that good conditioning will be a big factor and be an asset to us in the late stages of the ball games."

On offense the Red and Black will move from the T with multiple formations. The Tigers will display wing, slot, pro set and power I formations to move the ball.

Giants Shut Out Cardinals, Win 3-0

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

National League batters have had their ups and downs lately with San Francisco's Jim Barr ... up they come and down they go.

The 24-year-old right-hander,

who pitched a two-hitter against Pittsburgh last week for his first major league shut-out and retired the last 21 batters, mowed down the first 20 St. Louis hitters Tuesday night before Bernie Carbo broke the spell with a clean double and finished with a three-hit 3-0 victory over the Cardinals.

The string of 41 consecutive outs broke the major league baseball mark of 38 set by Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix in 1959, 36 of those coming in his memorable 12 perfect innings against the Milwaukee Braves.

Other National League scores: New York Mets 3, Cincinnati 0; Houston 2, Philadelphia 1; Chicago Cubs 2, Los Angeles 1; Pittsburgh 5, San Diego 3; Montreal 4, Atlanta 3.

Barr, who made 24 relief appearances before getting a start this season, "has earned full-time status as a starter," according to Giants Manager Charlie Fox.

The 6-foot-3, 215-pound University of Southern California grad made only 94 pitches in blanking St. Louis.

Reggie Cleveland of the Cards matched Barr's scoreless hurling until the ninth when Dave Kingman drove in all three runs with a bases-loaded double following an error by third baseman Dwain Anderson, an hit batsman, a sacrifice and an intentional walk to Dave Rader.

Houston made it two in a row under Leo Durocher's leadership when Lee Mac Greeted Philadelphia reliever Mac Scarce with a leadoff home run in the ninth inning. Cesar Cedeño homered in the sixth for Houston's first run and Oscar Gamble tied it in the seventh with a pinch single.

The Astros picked up a game on Cincinnati, which played dead against New York's Jim McAndrew and Tug McGraw, and trail the Reds by 7½ games in the NL West.

Loser Jack Billingham had his scoreless streak ended at 24 innings when Ken Boswell and Ed Kranepool homered for the Mets in the fourth. Tommie Agee connected in the eighth.

McAndrew retired Joe Morgan and Bobby Tolan on infield pops and struck out Johnny Bench after Pete Rose opened the sixth with a triple. But he needed last-out help from McGraw, who retired pinch hitter Hal McRae on a fly to shallow left with the bases loaded.

Tug McGraw, Mets Defeat Cincinnati Reds, 3-0

By BILL WINTER
Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP)—Tug McGraw lapped at a plate of spaghetti and gulped a glass of milk, ruminating over the pleasures of his line of work.

"This is some way to make a living," said the New York Mets ace relief pitcher after he put out a would-be Cincinnati rally in the ninth inning to preserve a 3-0 New York win over the National League's Western Division leaders Tuesday night.

"I can't wait to get in a ball game," said the impish McGraw, shrugging off as mere ill fate the walk he issued to Denis Menke, the first man he faced in the ninth.

McGraw had come on with two out, after starter and eventual winner Jim McAndrew, 10-5, allowed a walk to John Bench and a ground single to left-center by Tony Perez.

After the walk to Menke, McGraw worked pinchhitter Hal McRae to a 1-2 count, then whipped in a screwball that McRae popped up to left for the final out.

Licher Holds 2-Stroke Open Lead

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—"I'm not smart enough to have a game plan," said chuckling Ohio Open leader Chuck Licher, again belittling his own golf game.

Licher, a pudgy Fairborn pro, was no laughing matter to his opponents. His 68-69-137 start earned him a two-shot lead in the Ohio Open going into today's final 36 holes.

Jim Gerring, a 26-year-old Columbus assistant pro, slipped into second place with the best round Tuesday, a four under par 68 on the 6,675-yard Candywood Golf Club course for 139.

Deadlocked for third were three ominous figures, all with PGA tour experience.

Herman Keiser of Copley, the 1946 Masters champion and two-time Ohio Open king, slipped to 72 and joined PGA tour regulars Bob Lewis Jr. of Warren and Bob Wynn of Kettering, the defending champion, at 140.

Lewis surged into contention with a 69, while Wynn, seeking a third Ohio Open title in a row, settled for a second straight 70.

Demon Dyno Winner At River Downs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Call Me Jodie was the favorite in today's $2,200 featured ninth race at River Downs over 7½ furlongs on the turf.

Demon Dyno won his seventh straight race Tuesday, taking the feature and edging Ace Star by a neck.

Reliever Clay Carroll allowed the Mets a lone harmless hit in the ninth.

Both starters offered precise performances, but Billingham fed the Mets three home runs balls among their five hits.

Ken Boswell stroked a low-and-away fast ball over the right field wall in the Met fourth. An out later, Ed Kranepool jumped on a hanging curve, booming it over the fence in right-center.

"That was one of those pitches you stay awake at night over," Billingham sighed. "It was a hanging curve that any major league hitter should have hit out of the park ... and he did."

Tommie Agee, a strikeout victim twice in his first three at-bats, slammed a Billingham curve over the left field wall in the eighth to cap the scoring.

"He got me the first two times on curves," Agee said. "I guess when you've got a good pitch going you've got to go with it. But that third time, I got it."

Boswell's homer was particularly painful to Billingham, ending his string of 24 scoreless innings pitched.

McGraw's ninth inning performance capped a sharp pitching duel that saw McAndrew allow only five hits, and loser Jack Billingham, 10-11, allow an identical number through eight innings.

Mark Spitz, Sandra Neilson Win Golds

MUNICH (AP)—"I'm afraid of everybody," said a smiling Mark Spitz.

The handsome Californian has nothing to fear tonight. It's not until Thursday night that he goes after the fourth of what he hopes will be an incredible seven gold medals.

Dan Novakov Given Cut, Brown Praise

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—Hometown center Dan Novakov was presented with the game ball following the Cincinnati Bengals defeat of the Philadelphia Eagles, cut from the squad and promised a recommendation for a coaching job.

Novakov, who grew up in Cincinnati and was a three-year starter at Notre Dame, played most of the last quarter in Monday night's game.

Activity Hums In Most Big 10 Training Camps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

COLUMBUS — Twelve men showed up on the trainer's list of injured players Tuesday, but only defensive tackles Dan Cuttito and Jeff Davis were expected to miss the Ohio State practice session today. Cuttito suffered a strained ankle and Davis a bruised elbow.

IOWA CITY — The Iowa Hawkeyes lost sophomore defensive lineman Larry Bush for the season Tuesday as he underwent an operation for a torn knee cartilage. The pace slackens for the team today as it has completed the last of its two-day preseason drills.

BLOOMINGTON — Freshmen Trent Smock and Mike Flanagan moved up to wide receiver spots on the second unit football team for Indiana Tuesday, the newcomers taking the spots of two senior lettermen. They were placed on the second squad ahead of Terry Woodburn and Rick Hofman.

MINNEAPOLIS — The Minnesota Gophers stressed passing and pass defense Tuesday as the squad concentrated on the aspect of the game in which they are considered to be strongest with eight returning lettermen in the defensive backfield.

EVANSTON — Senior Ted Somers and sophomore Mitch Anderson paced the Northwestern Wildcats through drills gave up permanent rights to them. Now, after a full month of training camp, Thomas has not practiced.

"I said at the time of the trade for Duane that it was a gamble, a roll of the dice," said the Chargers' coach. "Whatever the outcome, I'm not going to look back. We have a good football team to get ready for the season."

Then he told a television interviewer that, whether or not he achieves his seven-gold goal, these Games will probably be his last international competition.

"I have no plans for swimming any more at all, really," Spitz said. "I won't have the time. I'll swim until Monday."

The bronzed, mustachioed Spitz sliced through the water in the 200 freestyle in 1:52.78, unleashing a torpedo-like final lap to shatter his own world mark of 1:53.50 as well as the Olympic standard of 1:55.29 formerly owned by fourth-place finisher Mark Wenden of Australia.

Winning the silver was UCLA student Steve Genter of Lakewood, Calif. Werner Lampe of West Germany was third.

Spitz, of course, wasn't the only American to do well. The United States already owns 15 medals—five gold, six silver and four bronze. That's six more than runner-up East Germany and eight ahead of the Soviet Union.

One of those golds went Tuesday to a California high school student—the Golden State relay team seems to be living up to its nickname here—in what has to be one of the biggest upsets of the Games thus far.

Sandra Neilson, a giggly, dimpled lass from El Monte, Calif., wrecked Australian wizard Shane Gould's bid for four personal golds by winning the women's 100-meter freestyle in an Olympic-record 58.59—less than a tenth of a second off Miss Gould's world mark.

The rookies are Sherman White, Tommy Casanova and Tom DeLeon. All three played in the All-Star game.

The Bengals report back to camp today to prepare for the exhibition game Sunday at Columbus with the Cleveland Browns.

Jockey Laffit Pincay was the top rider in the nation last year with 380 winners and a world record $3,719,694 in purses.

Svare No Longer Nice Guy; Thomas Faces Daily Fine

By TOM EMORY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Harland Svare of the San Diego Chargers is finished playing the role of "Mr. Nice Guy."

Svare announced Tuesday that Duane Thomas, the talented but mysterious running back the Chargers acquired from Dallas, was being suspended and was subject to a fine of $150 per day for not reporting to the National Football League team Monday.

"Duane Thomas was told to report to training camp by 6 o'clock Monday," said Svare. "He failed to report. He is suspended without compensation. He will be fined $150 each day he is absent."

San Diego gave up sophomore running back Mike Montgomery and second-year wide receiver Billy Parks to get Thomas. Both players had outstanding rookie seasons for the Chargers but Svare, who has said Thomas is the best running back in the NFL since Cleveland's Jimmy Brown, gave up permanent rights to them. Now, after a full month of training camp, Thomas has not practiced.

"I said at the time of the trade for Duane that it was a gamble, a roll of the dice," said the Chargers' coach. "Whatever the outcome, I'm not going to look back. We have a good football team to get ready for the season."

Tuesday was cutdown day for the NFL teams. Each squad was to be reduced to 49 players plus rookies who played in the College All-Star Game. Another five players must be pared from each team by next Tuesday and, of course, the teams must reduce to a 40-player roster for their regular season openers.

SEATTLE (AP)—Cleveland Cavaliers Coach Bill Fitch reportedly had a five hour talk with Lenny Wilkens Tuesday but the former Seattle SuperSonics coach still hasn't decided whether to report to the Cleveland National Basketball Association team.

In fact, Fitch said Wilkens still is considering retiring. Replying to a question during an interview with Seattle television station KIRO, Fitch said the Cleveland team would not consider trading Wilkens to Portland.

Deny Claim Gilligan Cousin Running Profitable Stand

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The concessions chief for the 1972 Ohio State Fair has refuted a report that Gov. John Gilligan's cousin is operating two restaurants at the fair this year.

Fair Manager Victor Lucas reported earlier Monday that Gilligan's cousin, Michael Joyce, received concessions for the All-American restaurant and another fair officials' restaurant because no one else wanted them during the fair's 12-day run.

Carol Bailey, in a telephone interview with The Associated Press, said she was one of three partners who hold concessions for two restaurants and an ice cream stand at the fair. She identified her partners as Steve Raden and Lodge Weber, not Joyce.

Charles Carroll, concessions chief, said he signed a food-service contract with Raden and when told of Lucas' report, replied, "If he (Joyce) has any connection, it doesn't show in my papers. In my mind, he was the go-between."

Lucas could not be reached for comment on Carroll's statement.

Miss Bailey said she and her partners paid $1,550 for the rights to operate the All-American restaurant, the Harrison House where fair officials, staff members and judges eat, and the ice cream concession.

Joyce, she said, was a close friend who "is in charge of all the governor's fund-raising dinners. All I can say, is Mike Joyce has nothing to do with our concession."

Technically, all concession contracts are approved by the 11-member Ohio Expositions Commission. However, Sen. Harry Armstrong, R-17 Logan, said it was customary to let the fair manager choose concessionaires.

Prior to Carroll's comments, Lucas said Joyce was retained because nobody else could be found who wanted the contract. "We asked four of five different people, but nobody was interested."

"He was interested in doing it after Carroll talked to him. We would have been tickled to death if any of the others we asked would have taken it," Lucas said.

Miss Bailey said she was secretary-treasurer of Concessions Unlimited, Inc., which has the concession mentioned. She said Raden was president and Weber vice president of the enterprise.

She added that the venture so far in the fair has lost money.

All-County Free Lunch Policy Set

A county-wide policy for free and reduced price lunches has been adopted by Teays Valley, Logan Elm and Westfall School Districts.

The free meal policy is for students of all three districts who suffer unusual hardships or fall within a certain income scale.

For a family of four, whose income is $4,727 or less, the free lunch is available. A family of six with an income of $6,130 or less, will have free meals provided by the schools.

Eligibility determinations are made on a family basis, so all children in the same family at schools under the jurisdiction of the same school food authority are to receive the same benefits, a free lunch or a reduced price lunch, not some a free lunch and some a reduced price lunch.

Families falling within a scale or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships may apply for free lunches for their children. They may do so by filling out the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies will be available at the offices of principals of each school in the three districts.

The form is simple and easy to complete. It requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income, number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances which affect the family's ability to pay. Information is kept confidential.

An application may be submitted at anytime during the school year.

Under the policy's provisions, the principals of the respective schools will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official he may make an oral or written request for a hearing to appeal the decision.

At Teays Valley, Superintendent Benis Lutz has been designated as the hearing official. Superintendents Gordon Westfall and Logan Elm, are hearing officials of their respective districts.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of or discrimination against any student unable to pay the cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file at each of the three schools' district offices.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two pictures of the White House and the Capitol which the Library of Congress says are the earliest-known photographs of the buildings have been found in a San Francisco flea market.

The two, among six daguerreotypes recently acquired by the library, were believed taken around 1846 by John Plumbe Jr.

Plumbe, the library said, once had a Washington gallery but moved to San Francisco. The six pictures were discovered by Michael Kessler, a Los Angeles collector of early photos and equipment.

'Poison Queen Of Cleveland' Emma Colavito Dies At 84

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Emma Colavito, once known as the "Poison Queen of Cleveland," died Sunday at Ohio Reformatory for Women in Marysville at age 84.

"Big Emma," a practical nurse, entered the reformatory in 1926 to serve a life sentence for the 1920 poison murder of one of her patients, Marino Costanzo.

She had been tried in 1921, three years after being acquitted of first-degree murder in connection with the slaying of prominent Lakewood publisher Daniel J. Kaber. Kaber was stabbed 24 times in his sleep in 1919.

Mrs. Colavito was charged in the 1921 trial with selling poison given to Kaber by his wife. When Kaber did not die from dosages of arsenic, his wife allegedly hired two immigrant assassins to stab him to death.

The slayers testified they killed Kaber because Mrs. Colavito threatened to put a curse on them if they refused to carry out her orders.

Mrs. Kaber was convicted of first-degree murder and sentenced to Marysville, where she died in 1931. The two assassins were given 20 years in prison.

Police who began checking Mrs. Colavito's background after the Kaber trial discovered she was a nurse to Costanzo when he died in 1920.

Mrs. Colavito was convicted in Costanzo's death after one of his children testified she saw Mrs. Colavito give her father some medicine in a glass of water.

Mrs. Colavito left Marysville only once in 48 years, to attend the funeral of her mother in Cleveland in 1929. Her husband divorced her and took their five children to New York.

She pleaded for parole several times but was turned down.

She was proclaimed a medical miracle in 1955 when she survived two serious operations for the removal of almost all her digestive system.

The engineers, represented by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers union, claimed they were locked out at the Columbus station.

Change In Airport Fees Urged To Cut Congestion

WASHINGTON (AP)—A newly published study on air traffic congestion has recommended that airports charge higher airplane landing fees and that airlines charge higher ticket prices for flights during the busier hours of the day.

Ross D. Eckert, assistant professor of economics at the University of Southern California, made the recommendations in a 63-page study on airport congestion and at a news conference Tuesday. The study was published by the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research.

Eckert said airport landing fees now in existence vary with the weight of the aircraft but not with the time of the flight. These fees, he said, tend to make the costs of runway use lowest for aircraft most likely to contribute to congestion—the smaller, slower propeller-driven private and business aircraft.

He said the most common method of rationing scarce goods and services in the United States is through price, with the goods going to the buyer who will pay the most. But this method, he said, is used little for airports.

"The first come, first served method," he said, "tends to generate high levels of congestion. It is not efficient ..."

We should charge higher prices for airport use during popular hours and less during the off-hours, like the telephone company does."

A spokesman for the Airport Operators Council said a changing scale of landing fees would be difficult to negotiate because circumstances differ greatly from airport to airport and from airline to airline.

Eckert said the airlines have experimented only to a meager degree in confining lower fares in slack periods. Some night coach flights, mainly around Miami and other Southern cities, offer reductions of 20 to 35 per cent he said.

Division Of Wildlife Move Opposed By Constituents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Natural Resources wants to move its Division of Wildlife into new office space, but sportsmen and other division constituents want it to stay right where it is. The division now is north of downtown Columbus in a building that has housed it since the 1940s.

The department, which takes up a floor of the state office building downtown, wants to consolidate all its operations in a new office complex now under construction much farther north of the city.

The proposal is still at the idea stage and there has been no sales or lease of new office space, according to assistant department director David Meeker.

But it has already generated some opposition. The three-member Conservation Council of Ohio, composed of the Izaak Walton League of Ohio, the League of Ohio Sportsmen and the Ohio Conservation Congress and Game Reserve Association have gone on record against the idea.

And Wildlife Chief Daniel Armbruster says he has received complaints about the proposed move.

Armbruster said the move would take the division's operations away from most of its constituents, but added he would have to abide by the department's decision.

The conservation groups said that if the division's present quarters are sold, the revenue should be used to pay for the new office space.

Meeker said one appraisal had put the property's value at $510,000, but he expected the department would get more and the amount would be more than enough to house the division.

Day Center May Close

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—State officials say a federally-funded day care center for migrant children in West Leipsic west of here doesn't meet state health standards and may be closed.

The center is a combination day care and Head Start center operated at Leipsic from June to October for children of migrant workers.

It is one of 14 "mobile" centers for migrant children funded by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and run by the Texas Migrant Council in Laredo, Tex.

A state inspector found that the center, which serves 90 children, was overcrowded, unsanitary, had no first aid equipment, little furniture and inadequate fire fighting equipment.

Migrant Council Executive Director Oscar Villarreal said other centers also fail to meet standards of the states in which they locate. He said one reason was that it is difficult to find suitable locations for the short periods of time the centers remain in one area.

Slate Hearing On Lassiter Fund Charges

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ret. Air Force Gen. Albert F. Lassiter, accused of diverting millions of dollars from the Penn Central Railroad, will receive a hearing Nov. 13.

Lassiter surrendered to detectives Tuesday at City Hall. He stood silent throughout a 20-minute court appearance.

Common Pleas Judge Ethan Allen Doty set the hearing date and permitted Lassiter to sign his own $50,000 bond.

Lassiter, former head of Executive Jet Aviation, Inc., Columbus, Ohio, was accompanied by attorneys John A. Johnson, Boston, and John W. Walter, Philadelphia. They said F. Lee Bailey will represent Lassiter at the November hearing.

The defendant and his attorneys refused to answer reporters' questions as they left the seventh floor courtroom and headed for a staircase.

Dist. Atty. Arlen Specter obtained warrants Jan. 4 charging Lassiter schemed with former Penn Central finance chairman David Bevan, and broker Charles J. Hodge to invest Penn Central money in Executive Jet.

The three also are charged with "manipulating over $85 million in Penn Central investments" to benefit Pennphil, a private investment club formed by Vevean and Hodge.

The Penn Central Transportation Co., which operates America's largest railroad, filed for reorganization in June, 1970 under the federal bankruptcy laws. It is a subsidiary of the Penn Central Co.

Library Shelving Project Taken By Kiwanians

A roundtable discussion of club projects was the evening program of the Ashville Kiwanis at their Tuesday night meeting.

Don Forquer presented a project to aid the newly established Teays Valley elementary libraries. The library rooms are badly in need of shelving, so the club has set this Wednesday and Thursday evenings as the date to construct the first set of bookshelves.

A flea market, tentatively scheduled for Oct. 1, was proposed. President Southward appointed Forquer and Bill Fortner to head the committee.

Ashville Kiwanians went on record endorsing the one mill tax levy to establish emergency squad service with the Harrison Twp. Fire Department.

The club president read a report from Lt. Gov. Howard Hosler which showed the Ashville club leading Division 108 in interclubbing through the first nine months.

Orlan Cooper, assistant superintendent of Teays Valley School, will present next week's program.

A county-wide policy for free and reduced price lunches has been adopted by Teays Valley, Logan Elm and Westfall School Districts.

The free meal policy is for students of all three districts who suffer unusual hardships or fall within a certain income scale.

For a family of four, whose income is $4,727 or less, the free lunch is available. A family of six with an income of $6,130 or less, will have free meals provided by the schools.

Eligibility determinations are made on a family basis, so all children in the same family at schools under the jurisdiction of the same school food authority are to receive the same benefits, a free lunch or a reduced price lunch, not some a free lunch and some a reduced price lunch.

Families falling within a scale or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships may apply for free lunches for their children. They may do so by filling out the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies will be available at the offices of principals of each school in the three districts.

The form is simple and easy to complete. It requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income, number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances which affect the family's ability to pay. Information is kept confidential.

An application may be submitted at anytime during the school year.

Under the policy's provisions, the principals of the respective schools will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official he may make an oral or written request for a hearing to appeal the decision.

At Teays Valley, Superintendent Benis Lutz has been designated as the hearing official. Superintendents Gordon Massie and John Henn, of Westfall and Logan Elm, are hearing officials of their respective districts.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of or discrimination against any student unable to pay the cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file at each of the three schools' district offices.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two pictures of the White House and the Capitol which the Library of Congress says are the earliest-known photographs of the buildings have been found in a San Francisco flea market.

The two, among six daguerotypes recently acquired by the library, were believed taken around 1846 by John Plumbe Jr.

Plumbe, the library said, once had a Washington gallery but moved to San Francisco.

The six pictures were discovered by Michael Kessler, a Los Angeles collector of early photos and equipment.

'Poison Queen Of Cleveland' Emma Colavito Dies At 84

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Emma Colavito, once known as the "Poison Queen of Cleveland," died Sunday at Ohio Reformatory for Women in Marysville at age 84.

"Big Emma," a practical nurse, entered the reformatory in 1926 to serve a life sentence for the 1920 poison murder of one of her patients, Marino Costanzo.

She had been tried in 1924, three years after being acquitted of first-degree murder in connection with the slaying of prominent Lakewood publisher Daniel J. Kaber. Kaber was stabbed 24 times in his sleep in 1919.

Mrs. Colavito was charged in the 1921 trial with selling poison given to Kaber by his wife. When Kaber did not die from dosages of arsenic, his wife allegedly hired two immigrant assassins to stab him to death.

The slayers testified they killed Kaber because Mrs. Colavito threatened to put a curse on them if they refused to carry out her orders.

Mrs. Kaber was convicted of first-degree murder and sentenced to Marysville, where she died in 1931. The two assassins were given 20 years in prison. Police who began checking Mrs. Colavito's background after the Kaber trial discovered she was a nurse to Costanzo when he died in 1920.

Mrs. Colavito was convicted in Costanzo's death after one of his children testified she saw Mrs. Colavito give her father some medicine in a glass of water.

Mrs. Colavito left Marysville only once in 48 years, to attend the funeral of her mother in Cleveland in 1929. Her husband divorced her and took their five children to New York.

She pleaded for parole several times but was turned down.

She was proclaimed a medical miracle in 1955 when she survived two serious operations for the removal of almost all her digestive system.

Change In Airport Fees Urged To Cut Congestion

WASHINGTON (AP)—A newly published study on air traffic congestion has recommended that airports charge higher airplane landing fees and that airlines charge higher ticket prices for flights during the busier hours of the day.

Ross D. Eckert, assistant professor of economics at the University of Southern California, made the recommendations in a 63-page study on airport congestion and at a news conference Tuesday. The study was published by the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research.

Eckert said airport landing fees now in existence vary with the weight of the aircraft but not with the time of the flight. These fees, he said, tend to make the costs of runway use lowest for aircraft most likely to contribute to congestion—the smaller, slower propeller-driven private and business aircraft.

He said the most common method of rationing scarce goods and services in the United States is through price, with the goods going to the buyer who will pay the most. But this method, he said, is used little for airports.

"The first come, first served method," he said, "tends to generate high levels of congestion. It is not efficient ...

We should charge higher prices for airport use during popular hours and less during the off-hours, like the telephone company does."

A spokesman for the Airport Operators Council said a changing scale of landing fees would be difficult to negotiate because circumstances differ greatly from airport to airport and from airline to airline.

Eckert said the airlines have experimented only to a meager degree in confining lower fares in slack periods. Some night coach flights, mainly around Miami and other Southern cities, offer reductions of 20 to 35 per cent he said.

Division Of Wildlife Move Opposed By Constituents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Natural Resources wants to move its Division of Wildlife into new office space, but sportsmen and other division constituents want it to stay right where it is.

The division now is north of downtown Columbus in a building that has housed it since the 1940s.

The department, which takes up a floor of the state office building downtown, wants to consolidate all its operations in a new office complex now under construction much farther north of the city.

The proposal is still at the idea stage and there has been no sales or lease of new office space, according to assistant department director David Meeker.

But it has already generated some opposition. The three-member Conservation Council of Ohio, composed of the Izaak Walton League of Ohio, the League of Ohio Sportsmen and the Ohio Conservation Congress and Game Reserve Association have gone on record against the idea.

And Wildlife Chief Daniel Armbruster says he has received complaints about the proposed move.

Armbruster said the move would take the division's operations away from most of its constituents, but added he would have to abide by the department's decision.

The conservation groups said that if the division's present quarters are sold, the revenue should be used to pay for the new office space.

Meeker said one appraisal had put the property's value at $510,000, but he expected the department would get more and the amount would be more than enough to house the division.

Library Shelving Project Taken By Kiwanians

A roundtable discussion of club projects was the evening program of the Ashville Kiwanis at their Tuesday night meeting.

Don Forquer presented a project to aid the newly established Teays Valley elementary libraries. The library rooms are badly in need of shelving, so the club has set this Wednesday and Thursday evenings as the date to construct the first set of book shelves.

A flea market, tentatively scheduled for Oct. 1, was proposed. President Southward appointed Forquer and Bill Fortner to head the committee.

Ashville Kiwanians went on record endorsing the one mill tax levy to establish emergency squad service with the Harrison Twp. Fire Department.

The club president read a report from Lt. Gov. Howard Hosler which showed the Ashville club leading Division 105 in interclubbing through the first nine months.

Orlan Cooper, assistant superintendent of Teays Valley School, will present next week's program.

Day Center May Close

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—State officials say a federally-funded day care center for migrant children in West Leipsic west of here doesn't meet state health standards and may be closed.

The center is a combination day care and Head Start center operated at Leipsic from June to October for children of migrant workers.

It is one of 14 "mobile" centers for migrant children funded by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and run by the Texas Migrant Council in Laredo, Tex.

A state inspector found that the center, which serves 90 children, was overcrowded, unsanitary, had no first aid equipment, little furniture and inadequate fire fighting equipment.

Migrant Council Executive Director Oscar Villarreal said other centers also fail to meet standards of the states in which they locate. He said one reason was that it is difficult to find suitable locations for the short periods of time the centers remain in one area.
